Elvis Presley LyricsA B C D E F G H I J K L M N O P Q R S T U V W X Y Z Words & Music by Doris Akers Lead me oh Lord, aren't you? Don't you lead me, lead me along the way, because if you lead me, I can't get lost or open my eyes so I may see Lead Me, O Lord, aren't you leading me, I'm lost, if you take your hand from me, I'm blind without trying to see the light always let your servant lead me, O Lord. , don't you lead me, guide me along the way Because if you lead me, I can't just wander the Lord to open my eyes so I may see Lead me oh Lord, don't you lead me Recorded: 1971/05/17, first published at He Touched Me on January 16, 1971 Elvis attends an event day culminating in an evening awards banquet. He and nine others accept credit for being named one of the 10 outstanding young men of the nation by the Junior U.S. Chamber of Commerce (The Jaycees). He's nervous about his acceptance speech. He's touched, excited and deeply proud. This national honour has been given every year since the late 1930s and credits young men who have made great achievements in their field, reflecting the opportunities available in the free enterprise system. It also praises humanitarianism and community service. Over the years, scientists, inventors, performers, filmmakers, politicians tied to the presidency and men of greatness from all fields have been selected for this award. For Elvis, a poor-grown man who, in his early career, felt a mock sting from an institution that over the years has felt criticized for his work, this is one of his proudest moments. It is a sign that he has achieved acceptance, recognition and respect against his work and the kind of person he is.
