NEWS: More interesting tools for group administrators: Administrators can now set special group rules to help manage their group. Administrators can also see a list of the best members in their groups by clicking the group name. Administrators can also see the performance of their groups for the last week! Administrators can also run group polls for members Making chatrooms better: Hosts can now invite their chatroom members to the audio slot. Disadvantage of the share chat app: This service is designed primarily to communicate with each other in their native language. The problem is that when I had the English option, more than 50% of users would choose English and wouldn't engage too much in the app. It can be seen that they could not speak English beyond the exchange of basic politeness, pleasantries.
