Our beautiful Palo Alto school is conveniently located near Emerson and Addison, in the heart of the city, next to major technology companies and Stanford University. Our neighborhood is the center of the city's art, culture and education. Our beautiful campus and hospitable community is the perfect place for your child to explore their own potential. The Montessori guide classes light, airy, soothing, aesthetically beautiful spaces. Each material is carefully selected and carefully displayed - to inspire and encourage your child to study. Children's classes Beautiful and spacious, activities on the shelves in our toddler room will call your child to discover new things. Your baby will be fascinated by all the interesting things prepared for him! Chairs, tables, and all parts of each event are specially sized to fit your baby. Children's Home Classes Children's Home classes respond to the need of a young child in order with beautiful and lovingly curated materials that speak directly of your child's desire to actively explore the immediate surroundings. As your child is introduced to one enticing activity after another, she finds endless, wonderful opportunities to discover her own potential. The children's home classroom addresses the intelligence of a young child with specific experiences offered through carefully sequenced activities. The California School Catalog and related data files of public schools and counties (collectively referred to as Directory) contain information about California schools, districts, and school/district administrators who are voluntarily reported by local educational institutions (LEAs) to the California Department of Education (CDE) as a public amenity. Because the information is voluntarily transmitted independently, the Directory does not contain information for each LEA, and the information on which is in the Catalog may be out of date or have errors, omissions, typos and other inaccuracies. Therefore, information or lack of information in the Catalogue should not be used for any purpose and should only be used to communicate with the LIA. CDE makes no representations or guarantees, express or implied, regarding catalog information. Our neighborhood is the center of the city's art, culture and education. We offer programs for children between the ages of 18 months and 6 years. The baby is a time of amazing growth. In a short span of a year or so, your child is experiencing an explosion of language, along with dramatic advances in fine and gross engine control, the ability to solve problems, independence, and social interaction. The Montessori Toddler class offers an environment and community that is key to nurturing these skills. The Children's Home community is a carefully prepared class the size of a child, in which a young child can manage their activities, build confidence and social skills. The class includes five different areas - one for each major academic subject with enticing and sequenced materials that your child will be introduced with individual lessons over a three-year period.... 930 Emerson StPalo Alto, CA 94301MonClosed nowTueWedThuFriSatSunYelp users have not asked any questions yet about the Montessori Guidepost in Palo Alto.
