We send long-term staff and short-term professionals to train leaders in emerging markets so they can train others - build their nations and give hope to future generations. REI's work is diverse in every emerging nation in which we focus. Through education and medicine, business and agriculture, our highly qualified employees at six locations in Asia and Africa.As a non-profit organization train and develop additional employees, our organization and employees are financially supported by monthly and annual donations. Give today to be a part of building people to build nations! REI employees and trainees work together at six locations in Asia and Africa over the long term, and volunteers undertake annual short-term trips. If your professional goals for international development match ours, come with us! These online seminars still allow REI and professionals to influence the people of Vietnam... in a new way! People from emerging countries full of hope as their countries are developed and their lives changed It is our honor and privilege to have over 8,800 infants, children, teenagers, adults and seniors in the counties of El Paso, plate and park to serve. The Resource Exchange (TRE) works with people who seek help accessing community resources and help them make informed decisions so they can live the life they want to live. We work with our to help them navigate the complex system of support that our community provides to them, helping them achieve the quality of life they seek, and working closely with the families they love. TRE maintains relationships with over 100 community partners to which we refer our families. Our partners join TRE to increase opportunities for the people we serve. OUR VALUES Respect: We respect and honor the inherent value of people and the unique contributions they make to our community. We also respect and value every employee and volunteer. Integrity: We run our business transparently, honestly and ethically. Partnership: We build mutual relationships with community partners that increase opportunities and quality services. Excellence: We dedicate ourselves to excellence through innovation, because good enough is JUST NOT good enough! Accountability: Everyone is accountable. At TRE, we strive to be nimble, relevant, responsive, innovative, transformative and entrepreneurial. We are also excited about the opportunity to answer questions and create new partnerships in our state, country and world.
