Written by: Susanna Clarke on the eve of the 19th century, two very different magicians turn up to change English history. In 1806, as the Napoleonic wars rage on land and at sea, most people believe magic is long dead in England - until the recluse Mr. Norrell reveals his strength and becomes a celebrity overnight. Soon another practicing magician will emerge: the young, handsome and daring Jonathan Strange. He will be Norrell's student, and they will join forces in the war against France. But Strange is increasingly drawn to the wildest and most dangerous forms of magic, burden his Norrellin kanssa ja vaarantaen kaiken muun, mitä hän pitää rakkaana.
