We all love Chinese food, but isn't it time to put down a take-out menu, take out the pan, and try cooking our favorite dishes ourselves? (In case you're wondering, the answer is yes!) There may not be a genuine chicken by General Tso in Chinese cooking, but when you check out those seven recipes - from fried rice to Hunan beef - you won't even miss it.

1. Shrimp Fried RiceShare on PinterestShrimp Fried Rice! Shrimp fried rice! The food is so good you have to say it twice. This vegetarian packaged version of the hired classic snap to prepare and fully adapts depending on what happens in your fridge. Make this recipe once and then try it with different vegetables and chicken or tofu.

2. Pork and Chive DumplingsWhy to order dumplings when you can make your own? Chiv and pork are stellar combos, but you can also get fancy and swap in vegetables like steamed broccoli or mushrooms and carrots. Not quite ready to roll your own wrappers? Ready wonton wrappers are available in most grocery stores.

3. Laksa SoupCreamy and spicy coconut laksa noodles is a staple in Malaysia fare that is heavily influenced by Chinese cooking methods. To speed up the process, buy laksa in the Asian section of the grocery store.

4. Char Siow-style fried eggplant This is a fried, sweet but salty eggplant cooked in the char siu style of Chinese pork. Marinate the slices of eggplant in a sticky mixture of soy, oyster and hoisin sauce, then bake until soft. Stir the roasted Chinese GreensGarlicky, the delicate greens are a must in Chinese cooking, and the best part is that the vegetables themselves are completely interchangeable. Try the roast Bok Choi tonight, Gai Lan (Chinese broccoli) tomorrow, and Napa cabbage this weekend. Hunan BeefMega-spicy Hunan-style beef roast is a crowd nice dinner you want to make every week. Sweet green peppers and celery make up for spicy Sichuan long red peppers, and when it's tossed with thin strips of beef and salty sauce, you'll forget all about what's an old box of General Tso in the fridge. Conji Rice Porridge is a dish around a large bowl of Chinese rice porridge, known as conji or jook. While you can make a meal ranging from raw rice, a pot of raw or too dry rice can easily be turned into conga when left to simmer with chicken stock and Chinese aromatics. Yes, you can cook Bok Choi: 12 ways to use healthy Chinese cabbage Add healthy Chinese cabbage for dinner tonight with these Asian-style, oh-so-delicious Bok Choi recipes.

Last updated October 14, 2020 When you learn how to be sure, you can use it in your daily life to solve all your goals and objectives. However, not many people realize that learning to gain self-confidence is like building muscle- it grows in response to the level of performance required from it. Here I will give you 51 proven ways to overcome the lack of self-confidence and achieve Learn something NewSign for this evening class and enjoy it. This. Read a book (or take an online course) on a topic you've always wanted to learn more about. Ask your partner or friend what you can do for themIt may be something as simple as helping them with work they don't like or have little time for. By helping them, you will find that you feel better about yourself.

3 Hit GymThe physiological effects of going to the gym will leave you feeling great. Countless studies have shown that regular workouts in the gym can boost not only your sense of well-being, but can boost your self-esteem, too.

4. Go to the EventRather network than get nervous about your own things, focus on how to help others. Instead of going along with the goal of trying to sell yourself to others, why not change your approach and just go along to see how you can help the people you meet? By doing this, you will come across as calm, self-confident, and someone that people will want to turn to over and over again. Get clear on the things that are important to youIf these things are not in your life, you will need to bring them in, for example, if your daily routine is now as boring as a cookware, but you want it to be fun, then do something about it. Turn data entry into personal speed contests, paper flow into free-to-screen time, and interaction with colleagues into pleasant conversations.

6 Remove negativity from your lifeSize a list of things you tolerate and put up with in your life, and then write down how you can remove, minimize, or reduce each one. Personally, I would do this with pen and paper as it feels a little more real and definite than the screen. It's also a good idea to put priority items at the top of the list so you can start solving these first.

7. Celebrate your big and small WinsLook for big or small goals that you have completed, and give yourself credit for your role in it. Talk to new peopleGo and talk to someone you don't know. By doing this, you may be pleasantly surprised by what or who-you discover. You can also extend this line by breaking out of your normal social situation in the workplace. It will work wonders when you learn to be confident.

9 Do something you usually say no toNext once you say yourself out to do something (invitation party, complex project, etc.), go and do it anyway. It's a great way to enhance personal development. Doing One Thing Every Day That Makes You SmileThis can be something as simple as sending a thank you letter to a colleague that was helpful to or leave a surprise gift for your partner that they will discover when they wake up. Life Life be heavy and we should all make an effort to keep it easy, loving and cheerful.11 Give yourself good adviceWatch on patterns of thought that take you to a place where you start second guessing or overthinking. Now imagine that your best friend went through exactly the same thought process and ended up holding back himself - what would you like to tell them? This is known as the Soloman paradox - we often solve other people's problems quite well, but not our own. Call it up and take your own good advice next time. Ask someone on Dateif you are single and have met someone that you are definitely attracted to-go-go and ask them. Even if they turn you away, it will help you learn to be sure that you have been decisive and have made an effort. What's the best thing that can happen? They could just say yes!13. Write down 20 things that make you feel goodThink this as a thank you list. Typical things you can include are: your partner, your kids, your parents, your pets, etc. I recommend writing this list at least once a month. And most importantly, make sure you give 20 things enough space in your life.14 Stop playing different roles to play different roles and squeezing yourself into boxes based on what you think people expect of you. Be your authentic self, someone who knows what to do and loves what they do. It is easy to find this part of yourself as it is inherent in your hobbies and your close friendship. If you can bring this authenticity into your working life, you will be surprised at how positively others will react to you.15 Develop a positive mindsetLearn to catch yourself every time you tell yourself that you can't have, don't get, or aren't good enough to get what you want. Instead, tell yourself what you can have, will get, and are good enough to get what you want. Thinking is everything. Make sure yours is positive and dynamic.16 Connect yourself with Auto-PilotMake's deliberate decisions about what really matters to you. For example, if you usually work from 9 to 5 but find yourself spending hours getting to and from work, why not negotiate with your boss to mix your hours up a bit? You can also offer a day or two of work from home. Sell this to your boss by reminding them that the time and stress lost to commuting can be neatly transferred to productive working hours.17 Listen carefully to what you tell yourself The next time you come up against risk or challenge, listen to what you say to yourself, and look for a way to improve your inner dialogue. If you usually find that your internal dialogue is negative, then break out of it by asking yourself questions such as: would make it easier? Is there any other way to do this? Can research help? 18. Laughing at yourself The family looks stupid? It doesn't matter, so don't let it stop you. Whenever we try something There's a chance we're going to make fools of ourselves. But you'd be a big fool to let that stop you. Instead, laugh at your child's steps and watch your confidence soar as you begin to master your chosen activities.19 Listen to your doubts Sometimes your doubts are there so you know that you need to prepare so that you can use them to your advantage as you move forward. Other times, they just have doubts. The trick is to quickly determine if your doubts are legitimate. If they do, use them to shape your decisions. To illustrate this, imagine that you had a tempting job offer, but you doubt that you are capable of doing this job. Spend a little time analyzing your doubts to see if they reflect reality, or whether they are just negative thoughts that try to hold you back.20 Think back to the time when you did a great JobThink at the time when it felt like a whole bank of switches in your head clicked on the position and you were shooting at all the cylinders. What did you do, and why was it so great? Can you emulate that passion and drive that you had?21. Breaking your BookYou rule may not know, but you've almost certainly got a whole bunch of outdated rules that determine what you do and don't do. These rules limit your thinking and your behavior. It's time to change them. To break this subconscious book of rules and throw it into the fire. Once you've done that, you'll immediately notice how free you feel to make complex and exciting decisions.22 Ask yourself what you got when you LoseDo you get annoyed with yourself because you didn't make the most of something or backed away from the opportunity? First, don't beat yourself up because it's only going to make you feel worse. Instead, be brutally honest and ask yourself what you got from the situation and what you lost on. Based on this win/loss, what other choice can you make next time?23. Don't let people put you downif you if there's someone in your life who puts you down or makes you feel small, you have a duty to do it for yourself to let them know that you expect something different from now on. Trust me, as soon as you contact them, they'll change, and so will you. Inevitably, you will stimulate both your trust and happiness by taking control of your life in this way. Learn how to get out of toxic relationships in this article24. Showing a little bit of real YouRelationships can be difficult. They can also lose their zest and become obsolete. If this happens in your relationship, then it's time to add a little magic to the mix. Try to reveal something interesting about yourself or your past that your partner currently doesn't know when to learn to be confident. you never mentioned to them that you played in a rock band and you still have records to prove it! Adding new things in You will deepen the connection and keep the spark alive.25 Be your own HeroRecognize that you are more than a match for any situation you may find yourself in-no matter how tough going gets. We all love movies like Die Hard, where ordinary people are driven to super-ordinary feats. But here's the thing: you can be your own action hero. Whatever the situation, meet his head and overcome it. Keep in mind the classic phrase: Where there will be, there is a way. 26. Don't give up on an instant pay-offif I had to offer you $100 now for a day job tomorrow or $110 for the same job, but I won't pay you for the week, what would you choose? Well, I can't read your mind, but I know that research using a similar question to this has found that most people choose an instant, smaller payment on the latter, more payment. It seems that we are wired for instant gratification. However, if you want to be successful in life, always look at the bigger picture. In the example above, if you could only wait another seven days, you would be $10 richer!27. Instead of screaming I deserve better, say: I can be better Too often I hear people complaining about their personal circumstances but refuse to do anything about it. Don't be like them. If something goes wrong, find solutions and implements. Your courage and determination will increase your confidence and help you quickly climb the ladder of success.28 Admit that you Wroglt may not be easy, but you should always be prepared to keep your hands up and change your mind if things go south. Not every idea you will have is winning. The trick is to know when things clearly aren't working. You can try to get them back on track or kill them completely (sometimes that's the best way).29 Trust your instincts We all have our guts and intuitions, but many people prefer to ignore them and rely only on facts, facts and more facts! While this may work for many scenarios, there will be other times when you will need to rely on your instincts.30 Imagine your confident future Of SelfImagine you have visited a successful, confident, attractive and bright version of you from the future, a version of you who are all you hope to be. What do they want to tell you? They can praise your efforts, but they can also criticize your lack of planning and weak goals. Fortunately, if you listen carefully to what they tell you, you will be able to quickly shift gears in your life and become you in the future!31. Ask for helpIt is a common problem. We take on too many responsibilities and end up either burning ourselves or just doing a bad job! The secret is to put the vast majority of your energy and effort into what you Ok. Give things you don't do well for those who gift for it. Sometimes the most self-confident the effective thing to do is seek help. Be around people who make you feel like youDo it, spending more time with people who support and encourage you and less time with those who undermine you. At work, don't be destroyed by negative, petty people. Instead, make sure you surround yourself with colleagues who make you laugh and feel good about yourself. 33. Take part in the world Around YouAsk itself this question: What can I participate in what is important to me? Typically, it can be your church, sports club, or even just a weekly get together with your best friend.34 Develop skills to work on things that are important to youWhat can you practice that would radically improve your chances of winning? If you want to climb the corporate ladder, for example, then develop the skills you need to do so. These can include: effective project management skills, powerful presentation abilities, and superior goal-setting skills. Of course, don't forget that imitation by those who have already achieved your goal is one of the quickest and most reliable ways to achieve your goals, too.35 Act Until You Make ItThe body is a mirror for the mind, so moving your body language to a confident state can have unexpected results. It's all about acting. If you want to come across as tough, act tough. If you want to come across as successful, act successfully. And if you want to come across as confident, act confidently. Try to do these things and you will be amazed at the results.36 Click when you want to give up Don't get frustrated or demotivated when you get up to 90% with something you work on. Push through, and you'll see that the last 10% is the place where the magic happens.37 Stop Comparing Yourself to OthersKeep Comparing Yourself to Others? Stop it. If you want to learn how to be sure, don't try to test yourself through comparison- you're just peachy like you. Social media often makes it difficult. Try to move away from your Facebook page for a few days and reconnect with the great things in your own life. You can get started with this guide. Speak when you can do DifferenceSpeak, if there is something you think can be improved, or if you have an idea, you think of the legs. Have you noticed that quiet people at work rarely get shares? It's not that they are incapable or lacking talent, but their abilities are usually overlooked because they don't know how to interact with others or how to sell themselves. Get out of your comfort zone and make sure you're an active player. Speaking at meetings, offering ideas and offering constructive criticism.39 Stop fighting and start taking if there's something you've been trying to figure out for a while stop trying to figure it out. Accept it for what it is, completely and completely. All life offers endless secrets. If you try to solve them all to drive yourself crazy. Instead, let some secrets remain, and keep your mind focused on your goals and dreams.40 It's okay to be ShyThere there's nothing wrong with being shy, and that doesn't mean you're not a confident person. If you suffer from shyness, you may think that this is your main weakness. However, introverted people have an advantage in many ways, such as: they are first speed listeners, they have excellent surveillance skills and they are easier to trust. Cleaning the environment your environment directly affects your self-knowledge. So if you're surrounded by clutter, paperwork, and trash, put the morning aside to clean your stuff and get organized.42. Write a list of things that you would like to doWrite yourself to list the amazing things you would like to do in your life and start by just looking at the first one or two things that pop up on you. This will help you get started as you learn how to be sure if you currently don't have the means to live your dreams, you can at least start. The best way to do this is to write what you would like to do. These can include interesting things such as traveling the world, learning a new language, or climbing a mountain. Once you've added items to your list, don't stop there. Start exploring and preparing ways to turn your dreams into reality.43 Make your Self-Worth regardless of others' Check Don't make your happiness or self-esteem depend on whether in a relationship or be tested by someone else. While it's hard to admit, we often find ourselves rating our self-esteem by the cost other people put on us. For example, you may have a super-positive boss who is always reassuring and supportive. They make you feel optimistic and confident at all times. However, imagine if they were gone and your new boss was the complete opposite. They are constantly looking for flaws in your work and regularly criticize you. Do you still feel confident in these circumstances? If you say no, you need to re-evaluate your self-esteem because it shouldn't depend on checking others.44 Use your strengths, we all have our weaknesses, but they only undermine your confidence if you let them. He never let it hold him back or destroy his trust. Today he is one of the most successful people in the world, with a net worth of about $5 billion.45. Complete the to-do listThe longer you leave that big thing on your to-do list, the more it will drain you, and the more it will seem. Do it and free yourself. If you have a big goal, break it down into smaller tasks. For example, instead of write a whole chapter of your book in one go, how about just writing the first paragraph?46. Treat your body well when how to be sure our body image matters, because if you have a bad relationship with your body, you will not feel confident in yourself. What's one of the first things most of us do when we get up in the morning? We look in the mirror. If we don't like what we see there, then our day starts with a negative conversation. If, on the other hand, we look in the mirror and are proud of our appearance, we start the day off in an optimistic, positive way. If you are unhappy with your body and looks, do something to improve them. Exercise, diet and styling are common ways to improve your body image and your confidence.47 Learn to say noDon't say yes to take on the task simply because you don't want to rock the boat. You can politely reject requests that you cannot satisfy without having to create excuses. Saying yes to anything that comes your way can feel like you are being helpful and in demand, in the long run, you will burn yourself. Learn from confident people to look at people you respect who seem confident. Don't copy them, but determine exactly what they do differently, which conveys confidence and what you can learn from it. Watching people is not only fun, but it can be informative, too. Look closely at the successful people you know or those who are interviewed on TV, and over time you will begin to notice the commonalities, beliefs and behaviors they demonstrate.49 Follow through on your plansMost people easy to write plans. The hard part, of course, is seeing them through. To stand out from the crowd, make sure you know exactly how to complete your plans. If you need to, write down a step-by-step guide and start following it. This will not only lead you to the completion of your plans, but experiencing progress will also give you a continuous boost to your self-esteem.50 Shift focus when you doubt yourself, when you feel the emphasis inside and becomes paralyzed with doubt or fear, switch to focusing outwards on what you can engage with. This is sound advice, as it is very easy to catch up with our thoughts and emotions and be unable to make progress.51 Never beat yourself up for FailingLife guaranteed there will not always be barrel laughs. Instead, it's a lot more like a roller coaster. There will be ups and downs, so ride them. The art of living is to know how to handle what comes your way. The best way to achieve this goal is to develop an iron core that is unhindered by the topsy-turvy of the outside world. Final ThoughtsHere I gave you 51 ways to start building self-confidence take action along the way that you are drawn to. In order for them to work, you must take them in Life. Do this and you will begin to feel your confidence soar. Read more on Tom,as to be confidentFeatured photo credit: Mateus Ferrero via unsplash.com unsplash.com chinese food recipes pdf free download
