November 21, 2019 0 MADE BY F-S Michelin Guide Belgium-Luxembourg 2020 is released in Ghent. New two-star, Kuchar by Jan Tournier in Lommel. While in Brussels, Alexandre Dionysio lost his second star at La Villa in the sky. The whole gastronomic scene gathered at the Flanders exhibition in Ghent to watch a star-studded presentation of the famous red guide. Eight award-winning addresses, mostly in Flanders. With a new two-star, Cuchara Jana Tournier in Lommel. It is with pleasure that Jan Tournier achieves a real return to basics in his kitchen, explains Werner LOENS, director of MICHELIN Guides Choice in Benelux. His creativity and technical prowess are being reflected in impressive creations. By concentrating a few ingredients, he manages to create real taste explosions. Food in Kuchar is a guarantee of the discovery of the universe, where ingenuity is in the service of taste. In the MICHELIN Belgium and Luxembourg 2020 guide, seven restaurants have been awarded a new star. At L.E.S.S. in Bruges, young chef Ruige VERMEIRE takes his guests to an Asian-style taste adventure with intense creations. The perfect harmony between cuisine and wine is the highlight of chef Sebastien WYGAERTS and sommelier Diederik HERBOTS in Ghent in Hasselt, as well as chef Glenn VERHASSELT and sommelier Janik DEHANDSCHUTTER at Sir quinten's restaurant in Sint-quintens-Lennik. The unique balance is provided in these establishments, thanks to the combination of modern high-flying cuisine with wines in demand by experienced sommeliers. Wilalmur Sigurdarson, chef at Souvenir restaurant in Ghent, masters the original vegetable cuisine. This very vegetable-oriented work is also an asset of the EssenCiel de Niels BRANTS restaurant in Leuven. In Brussels there is only one new 1 star, La Cane en ville, chef Kevin Lejeune. There is only one new star at Wallonia: Le Gastronome, which was taken over by a duo of chefs, Jean Vrijdaghs and Sebastien Khankar, who also wins the Michelin Prize, which rewards the best young chefs - tradition and modernity, the depth of their dishes finds its source in a subtle combination of flavors, where sweetness and acidity are mixed, and where special attention is paid to vegetables. Another star in the capital, Alexandre Dionysio in La Villa in the sky. Restaurant Hof van Cleve (Kruishoutem) retains its three stars again this year, thanks to the talent and culinary experience of chef Peter GOOSSENS and his teams, who bring every guest to life Unique. The work of Peter GOOSSENS, a daily source of inspiration for many chefs, is a testament to the high level of Belgian gastronomy. On this 2020 vintage, Gwendal Poullennec, International Director of MICHELIN Guides Comments: This choice is indicative of the richness of the culinary scene of Belgium and Luxembourg, which, in addition to the great variety of cuisine that makes it, also features a whole generation of chefs who, thanks to their creativity and talent, achieve a delicate balance where respect for products and gluttony go hand in hand. The 2020 collection also includes 168 Bib Gourmand (recognizable by symbol), including 20 new ones. This selection of Bib Gourmand shows the quality establishments OF MICHELIN Belgium and Luxembourg 2020 will be sold from November 22 at a price of 23.95 euros in Belgium and 23.27 euros in the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg. ViaMichelin offers route calculations and calculation of distances between cities, addresses or points of interest with 4 possible modes of transport: car/motorcycle/bike/pedestrian. For road and motorcycle routes, you can choose from Michelin Advice: this route promotes safety, simplicity and minimizes the risk of route error. This is the route that Michelin recommends by default. Fastest (priority time): This route is the one that takes the least time to get to your destination. The shortest route (priority by distance): this route is the one for which the distance to the destination is the shortest, while remaining on passable roads. Discovery: This route favours scenic roads with Tourist. Economically: This route offers a route that optimizes fuel consumption and avoids passage on toll roads. You can add up to 6 steps on your route. These steps will also be included in the VIAMichelin GPS app, if you have registered your itinerary in your Michelin account for the calculated route, ViaMichelin usually offers you a choice between 2 or 3 routes and makes it easy to compare them. ViaMichelin also provides you with detailed travel expenses: fuel costs for your car and fees across Europe. Due to the crisis, The Covid-19 Michelin was forced to postpone the MICHELIN Belgium-Luxembourg tour for two months. The event, which usually takes place in November 2020, will take place on Monday, January 11, 2021. As in previous editions, it is on this date that the full list of restaurants awarded by MICHELIN guide inspectors and differing from one or more stars, Bib Gourmand or Michelin Plate will be presented. m MICHELIN Belgium 2020 m Michelin Belgium 2020 Guide - Michelin Belgium 2020 Guide - Michelin Belgium 2020 Guide - MICHELIN Belgium 2020 m Guide TO MICHELIN Belgium 2020 - Michelin Belgium 2020 Booking Guide Available - Michelin Belgium Guide 2020 - Michelin Belgium Guide 2020 Michelin Belgium 2020 Guide - Michelin Belgium 2020 Guide TO MICHELIN Belgium 2020 m Guide TO MICHELIN Belgium 2020 - Michelin Belgium 2020 Guide - MICHELIN Belgium 2020 Guide - MICHELIN Belgium 2020 Guide Available Reservations - MICHELIN Belgium 2020 Guide - Michelin Belgium 2020 Guide - Michelin Belgium 2020 Guide - Michelin Belgium 2020 Guide TO MICHELIN Belgium 2020 Guide - MICHELIN Belgium 2020 Guide m Michelin Belgium 2020 Reservations available - Michelin Belgium 2020 m Michelin Belgium 2020 - Michelin Belgium 2020 Guide - Michelin Belgium 2020 Guide - Michelin Belgium 2020 Guide - Michelin Belgium 2020 Guide - Michelin Belgium 2020020 Guide - Michelin Belgium Guide 2020 Reservations available - MICHELIN Belgium 2020 Guide TO MICHELIN Belgium 2020 - MICHELIN Belgium Guide 2020 Reservations available - MICHELIN Belgium 2020 Guide - MICHELIN Belgium 2020 Guide available - MICHELIN Belgium 2020 Guide There are no results that meet the chosen criteria. Would you rather? The results of the prestigious Michelin 2020 guide to Belgium and Luxembourg were presented on Monday in Ghent. To the displeasure of many Belgian gastronomy, the list of stars in Belgium has never been thinner. So Belgium still has only one three-star star. None of them has been added to the 2020 list. Hof van Clive, from Peter Goossens to Kruishoutem is still the only one to get that rank, Hertog Yang, in Seldegem, threw off his gloves. Peter Goossens If the rumors again placed San Hun Degeimbre in L'Air du Temps in Liernu and Christophe Hardikest Good in Brussels, or Vicky Geunes t' zilte in Antwerp in the sky guide, they were not confirmed again. However, there is a new two-star hotel in 2020: Jan Tournier Cuchara in Lommel goes from one star to two. Jan Tournier © BelgaSept also received a star and appear in the guidebook: Kevin Lejeune from The Cane in the City (Ixelles), Ruige Vermeire of L.E.S.S. The Michelin guide mentioned another 144 in 2018 and 139 in 2019, but there are only 125 in its 2020 edition. Despite the rise of Cuchara, three restaurants lost their second star. In addition to the announced loss of Bartholomew, there is also Villa in the sky and Mosconi. But it is in the category of one star the losses are the biggest. Last year there were 113 more, this year there are only 109, despite seven new addresses and the arrival of those who lost a second star. This means that a total of twelve restaurants have lost their star. Thus, Francois Piscitello and La Villa de Begards in Embure lost their star. At Wallonia, there is only Le Gastronome, a restaurant in Paliseul that was taken over 11 months ago by Gene Vrijdaghs and Sebastien Hankard, a young duo of 24 and 26 years old who earns a star. They also won the Michelin Prize, which awards the best young chefs.
