There are 2 main ways to connect to Schoology. Try one of the other options if you have problems. First connect to HUB (hub.aliefisd.net) and click Schoology Schoology to alief.schoology.com In this option, you need to enter your user name slightly differentinstead of using only [identification number], you need to type the district[identification number]Make sure you're using correctly \ It's not the one on the same key as the question markit's really the same as option 2, but there's a link to alief.schoology.com on the Quick Links section of the AliefEi option web page to choose, you'll need to know your student ID number, and your password would normally use to connect to a computer at schoolFirst make sure you use your Google account correctly. Alief student Google accounts look like this: 123456@ga.aliefisd.netMake sure you use the identification number and don't forget the ga part Your password is probably not the same as the one you used to sign on to Schoology unless you were the one who changed it to thatThe default password for new accounts is your day using the following formatMMDDYY (make sure it has 8 numbers) So, a birthday from April 23, 2007 would be 04232007If you have tried all that and still do not know the password, email Mr. Duncan (eduncan@ga.aliefisd.net) with the identification numberFirst check the Home Access Center to make sure that the class is really missingSchoology makes program changes overnight. So sometimes waiting a day will set missing Schoology classes. Send an email to your advisor to let them know about the problemIf you don't know how to contact a counselor, let one of the teachers know about the problem. There are a number of possible problems that could cause this, so I'll try to list a few. If you're on a phone or tablet (and maybe also on a Chromebook)You might need to install the Zoom app to click a Zoom link and join inIf you don't have a ZoomCreate a free one by signing in with your GoogleSuplatforme account? If the Zoom meeting hasn't started yet or is over yet, you can click on the link, but you won't be able to sign inIf the link can't be clicked in SchoologyA teachers have their course materials configured so you can't get to the Zoom meeting until you complete the activity that comes before you know (This time is working Schoology and right now we can't change itSome teachers have changed their course icon at the right time, which helps. It's best to find your Home Access Center program and use this to know which class to continue to go to Zoom (∓Other VideoConferencing Tools) with your child Make sure your child is ready minutes ahead of time ∓ needs materials (consumable, charged device, charger, internet connected...). Pay attention to family that can be seen/heard during the videoconference. Use an appropriate virtual background if necessary. Minimize materials, backgrounds and noise as much as possible so your child can focus on their work. Ask the child to dress appropriately (follow follow Beginning of the video year). Remind your child that lessons are recorded for other students who have missed it, so they must behave as best they are in the classroom. Monitor your child, but let him struggle with work. Fighting is part of learning. If they have a question about a mission, they can reach their teachers via schoology or email. The quickest way to get help is to contact a teacher or other staff member through Schoology or email. Because of COVID-19, we are not able to have as many people answering phones as we normally have at the beginning of the year. You can also post your question to the Albright campus course in Schoology. Many staff members are looking there to see what problems we can help. Be on look-out for emails and schoology posts that can provide help for your specific problem. We do our best to get all this information for the people who need it.
