Color Flashlight is an Android tool that allows you to use a variety of features on your phone or tablet to add light to the darkroom. Color flashlight has two different modes: in the first flash mode, the camera is used as a flashlight (but the battery is consumed very quickly in this mode), and in the second mode the screen is consumed (in this mode, the cost is consumed much less). Flashlight mode from camera flash does not have many settings, but in backlight mode of the screen you will find many interesting options. You will be able to choose the brightness of the screen and, more importantly, the color of the illumination (blue, yellow, etc.), the remaining app options are common. - You can hide the touch controls on the screen or write text on the screen, so it will appear on a dark background. Color Flashlight is a very useful flashlight for Android, which allows you to illuminate everything you need. Whether you use a flash or phone screen, you will be able to dispel the darkness without any problems. The app has six different flashlight modes, one more extravagant than the other. Two of the more or less normal are disco torches and color torches. Among the more extravagant, you'll find police sirens and special lights blinking when you shake. Make it great for your Android, make it perfect for disco. In the disco setting LED flashlight, you can set the flashing speed. света, и даже передавать текстовые сообщения посредством световой азбуки Морзе. You can use lights with hundreds of different colors or even use the Android camera flash as a flashlight (although this consumes loads and loads of batteries). HD LED flashlight's interface is very simple and straightforward. With the far right button, you can turn on the flash of your Android device, and with the right button you can illuminate the display. If you want to use the screen as a flashlight, you can also choose a different beam color. To do this, simply slide your finger across the color prism until you find the right color. When you turn on the flashlight, simply tap the screen to determine the intensity of the beam. On this screen, a small indicator shows the remaining battery time on your device. HD LED Flashlight is a powerful flashlight for Android devices that allows you to light up any dark situation. Flash mode is especially useful because despite having a lot of battery consumption, it's more luminous than the screen mode does. 1 1.2.2 2,39MB 1 1.4.0 8,55MB 1 1.3.7 7,68MB 1 1.3.7 7,68MB 1 1.3.7 7,68MB 1 1.3.6 7,95MB 1 1.3.5 7,95MB сечасасай for down price.
