Asbury park restaurants boardwalk

For those of you who haven't been to Asbury Park lately, or have just read about it through a stranger's perspective, it's time that we, as locals, help you get into the game. Asbury Park has been continually rented by the likes of Travel and Leisure and even the New York Times, becoming the new it city on the Jersey coast. White sandy beaches, a lively promenade, and an equally hoppy downtown, Asbury Park is literally, the city by the sea. With residents and visitors from all walks of life, Asbury Park feels like a mini-metropolis, and its roaring restaurant scene is no exception. You'll find everything from tacos on the go to rocking cupcakes, eclectic cocktails, craft beer, and gourmet dishes actually from local farmers. With his newfound fame comes many opponents, but we are here to let you know that these Asbury Park restaurants and companies that have been here for a decade or only for a year are dedicated to serving delicious food in a very competitive market. If it's not great - it's just not doing it here! We wanted to help you make sense of a day, evening or weekend at Asbury Park, so we've put up a few places that are perfect for indulging in. With our guide to Asbury Park restaurants, you'll be eating and ordering as a local and maybe even making a few stops along the way! Downtown Asbury Park Restaurants Drive on Lake Avenue, so it's hard not to miss the very large space that is Asbury Festhalle and Biergarten. This Austro-Hungarian establishment has been re-run on the south side of the city, with its rooftop bar, live music, extra-large traditional German beers and gourmet menu that is impressionable in every way. ... is that you are welcome in German. 527 Lake Avenue, Asbury Park 732-997-8767 If you're here just about any day during the week, be prepared to wait because if you land until you refloat, you'll regret it. Toast is all about peace, love and pancakes and with options like their red velvet pancakes, Huevos Rancheros, and Nutella French Toast they don't joke around. Want a 10% discount on your entire food bill on your next (or first visit)? Download Locals InMotion for iPhone, click Local Offers, subscribe and you're on your way to a lot on some amazing foods. Enjoy! Don't forget to bring your own bottle of champagne to the party! 516 Cookman Avenue, Asbury Park 732-776-5900 In keeping with the theme of fresh fish, sushi powerhouse TAKA Restaurant and Bar (they moved from their old location on Bangs), takes all the stops. This is not the time to go traditional and with lunchtime dishes from 12 to 15 hours during the week, you are guaranteed not only a delicious meal, but a good deal. If you can look away from your plate for a while, be sure to take in the décor. Or or better, sip a cocktail and some app-d-do at the bar during happy hour. It's also a great place to watch people! 660 Cookman Avenue, Asbury Park 732-775-1020 Kimmie Masi, The Rock$Tar of Confections has been softening Cookman Avenue for more than five years. She has a lot of A-list customers and with her rock star cupcake set list which includes hits like I Can't Get No Satisfaction (a vanilla pod cake swirled with caramel, chocolate and peanuts, then topped with a caramel buttercream and drizzled with chocolate, peanuts, and Snickers). 550 Cookman Avenue, Ste 104, Asbury Park 732-455-3510 www.coarock.com In its location cannot miss the location at the corner of Cookman and Bangs, The Bonney Read is Asbury's own fish house. With dishes brought together in the same culinary spirit of Asbury Festhalle and Biergarten, chef James Avery, it's an easy way to get lost for a few hours. Oysters are fresh (just like the specially made Mignonette) and the new England clam chowd has finally met its match in the jersey green clam chowdle. 525 Cookman Avenue, Asbury Park 732-455-3352 www.thebonneyread.com Johnny Mac House of Spirits: Buy a beer and you'll get a pizza, some wall tips, and maybe a chance to play ping-pong outdoors. 208 Main Street, Asbury Park 732-776-6666 www.johnnymacbar.com/ Cardinal Provisions: This breakfast and lunch combines the classic décor we dream of with dreamlike dishes like their fried chicken and waffles with a number of sweets (don't miss the Xuixos). 513 Bangs Avenue, Asbury Park 732-898-7194 crdnal.com Talula's: There's nothing they take more seriously than their sourdough, which is why their specialty pizzas and sandwiches are always on the verge. 550 Cookman Avenue #108, Asbury Park 732-455-3003 talulaspizza.com Pascal and Sabine: The only French restaurant to adorn Asbury Park, think luxurious velvet, low lighting, and unctuous dishes. 601 Bangs Avenue, Asbury Park 732-774-3395 www.pascalandsabine.com/ Moonstruck: Picture wrap around porches, strong martinis, and classic dishes, the perfect appointment night. 517 Lake Avenue, Asbury Park 732-988-0123 moonstrucknj.com Barrio Costero: Mexican coastal cuisine meets the Jersey Coast, especially during their Daily Escape. 610 Bangs Avenue, Asbury Park 732-455-5544 www.barriocostero.com/ The Complex: Encompassing three restaurants and four bars (Bond Street Bar, Loteria, Capitoline) that range from burgers and beers to tacos and margaritas, there is a 100% chance that you will end up in one of them (or underground). 639 Cookman Avenue, Asbury Park 732-774-1575 Cross and Orange: Located on a corner with Windows overlooking Kennedy Park, Cross and Orange is a return to when the food you ate excited you with every bite. 508 Cookman Avenue 732-361-5502 732-361-5502 Brickwall Tavern and Dining Room: You could almost say that Brickwall is a very clean water hole ap, a relaxed atmosphere, pub grub, and lots, lots of beers. 522 Cookman Avenue, Asbury Park 732-774-1264 Brando Citi Cucina: Good food, quality ingredients, and excellent service make up this osteria where they will make you feel right at home. 162 Main Street, Asbury Park 732-774-2222 Crust and Crumble Pizzeria: Pizza lovers rejoice, this intimate pizzeria is the perfect place to gather and enjoy pizzas that can be made vegan, gluten-free, and delicious. 633 Lake Avenue, Asbury Park 732-776-7767 Reyla: Mediterranean tapas makes this lunch, dinner and brunch a place where the more companion you have, means the more dishes you can try. 603 Mattison Avenue, Asbury Park 732-455-8333 Modine: Talula's brains comes a modern touch on the classic low country coast full fare with vegan fried chicken that will fool anyone. 601 Mattison Avenue, Asbury Park 732-893-5300 Pasta Volo: Small but powerful could be the way to think about this hidden fresh pasta joint where you can make pasta al dente, your way. 419 Bond Street, Asbury Park 732-361-5549 At the Table: Blink and you can miss this hidden gem where chef Janice Murphy serves Southern-style dishes that will take you back to a night out in Charleston. 311 Bond Street, Asbury Park 732-455-5093 www.atthetablenj.com Twisted Tree Cafe: Open for breakfast and lunch, this (mainly) vegan joint is the perfect place to grab a fresh wrap and smoothie on your way to the beach. 609 Cookman Avenue, Asbury Park 732-775-2633 www.twistedtreecafe.com Belmonte's: Half-price pasta nights and a BYOB make this Italian seal a fun place to feel like a part of the family. 632 Cookman Avenue, Asbury Park 732-776-7500 belmontesap.com/ Asbury Ale House Sports Bar and Grille: While you dig into some of their special mac 'n cheese, pull some hoops, play a shuffleboard, or some video games - this is where adults can be adults and act like children. 531 Cookman Avenue, Asbury Park 732-455-3808 The Speakeatery: Stop for a sandwich or sit down for a quiet lunch, anyway treat yourself to one of the best Sang-Gweech Steak on the East Coast. 705 Cookman Avenue, Asbury Park 732-898-9456 www.thespeakeatery.com Proven Poke Co: The Hawaiian Poke Craze has officially taken over Asbury where you can now get fresh fish and toppings A practical bowl or wrap - perfect for the beach. 664 Cookman Avenue, Asbury Park 732-455-5969 DJ's Delights Deli and Restaurant: Not just a grab'n go, their restaurant is open from Memorial Day to Labor Day for BLD needs. 620 Mattison Avenue, Asbury Park 732-869-1100 www.djsinap.com Asbury Park Restaurants On the Boardwalk Cuba may now be on your travel radar, but it may not happen anytime soon.
