Two nations live on edge vocabulary

1 Two Countries Live on the Edge 2 H-Bomb 1 Million Tons of TNT –67 Times Stronger Than Little Boy USA Detonated First H-Bomb on November 1, 1952 Soviets: August 1953 3 Republicans Plan for '52 Elections Truman Decides not to Run Again – Approval Rate at All-Time Low of 23% – Spread of Communism – Korea Blood. Adlai Stevenson, Gov. of The Ailing General Dwight D. Eisenhower 4 President Eisenhower Ike's approach: Conservative dynamic conservatism w/$ liberal w/ Humans 5 Brinkmanship John Foster Dulles, Sec. of the country – U.S. use all forces (even atomic) against aggressive Brinkmanism: willingness to go to the edge of war all out. The Soviets followed suit. 6 Warsaw Pact Stalin dies in '53, West Germany joins Nato in '55. Fearing, the Soviets formed the Warsaw Pact - a military alliance with seven European countries. 7 Hungarian uprising dominated by Soviet Union – Hungarians wanted democracy November, 1956: Soviet tanks invaded the country and killed 30,000 people U.S./NATO did nothing (failure of the Truman Doctrine) 8 Nikita Khrushchev 9 Space Race October 4, 1957: Soviets launched Sputnik –T-Triumph in Soviet technology January 31, 1958: The first satellite of the United States - led to an increase in mathematics and sciences in the education system 10 U-2 spy plane CIA incident flew spy missions over the Soviet Union starting in the mid-1960s: Ike wanted the flights stopped. - The summit will take place in the arms race. May 1 - Francis Gary Powers was shot down over the Soviet Union. What wasn't common until the Eusehower years? In 1949, what decision did Truman have to make? Did you develop the hydrogen bomb what would work on the hydrogen bomb? That it was even more destructive than the atomic bomb and would have the power of a million tons of TNT What was wrong with that? Despite all these concerns, what did the U.S. do? On November 1, 1952, they exploded in a deadly race with the Soviet Union to see which country would be the first to produce the American bomb, on November 1, 1952, they detonated one, but the Soviets detonated one in less than a year until the two countries detonated the bomb, who was president was secretary of state and he was against communism. For him, the Cold War was a moral cross that Arahav could prevent the spread of communism by promising to use all its might, including nuclear weapons against any enemy. what was the U.S.'s policy/willingness to go to all-out war? Under Brinksman's watch, what the U.S. did> cut its army and navy and expanded the Air Force and nuclear weapons buildup What the Americans did to protect themselves from bombs that practiced air raid drills because the threat was nothing like the one they ever faced in central intelligence Use spies to gather information in the sand. They also began carrying out covert operations to unfriendly overthrow governments in the U.S. In 1951, Iran's Prime Minister Mohammad Mosadqe did what bewildled Iran's oil field, placing private industries (owned by GB) under Iranian rule. How did Britain protest against oil What happened to the Iranian economy? What the U.S. feared about Iran that they would give the Soviets help what the CIA did as a result they gave several million dollars to supporters against MOssadegh why the U.S. intervened in the Iranian Afaris they wanted the pro American Shah to return powr What the Shah did when he returned to power gave control of oil fields to Western companies what Eisenhower believed about the people of Guatemala (govt because they had communist sympathies because it gave more than 200,000 American-owned land to farmers. What did the CIA do as a result of Guthmal's interest that they trained an army and retired to Guatemala back then, Because guatemala's military refused to defend the president, they installed a dictatorship of how Soviet tensions of the U.S. thawed what the Soviets recognized in what triggered the Soviet fear that West Germany had been allowed to re-join Nato it linked the Soviet Union with seven Eastern European countries - their satellite states in July 1955 And Eisenhower went where and what he suggested he went to Geneva to meet with Soviet leaders. He made an offer to Open Skies. Where will the Soviet Union and the United States allow flights around each other's territory?
