Lazarus log homes boise

Order your book plan Today the log house left a lasting imprint on the face of American architecture more than any other style of home. The log house mixes simply with its environment, but adapts mercifully to sophisticated interior designs. Since its founding in Boise, Idaho in 1975, Lodge Log and Timber in Boise, Idaho, has produced and sold thousands of milling magazine packages for homes, hotels, restaurants and more in the U.S. and around the world. Most people who build a new log home often consider it to be their last home they always build. Thus, we at Lodge Log and Timber understand the importance of helping you, the client, through the process of achieving your dream of your own quality log cabin that will be used for the rest of your life. We can design small houses, luxurious log houses, houses and commercial buildings. Lodge Log and Timber has built a reputation for integrity and reliability in the log home industry. Our growth comes from literally thousands of happy, satisfied customers. Let Lodge Log and Timber help you realize your dream of your own quality log home. While we offer 20 standard log cabin plans, we can modify any of them to meet your expected log home life. We offer access to a free log home planning book and pre-cut log cabin kits that are easy to build saving you time and money. We invite you to visit our corporate office and set a tour of our mill. Find out more about the company first, we'll help you quickly by finding a plan that closely matches your budget (your or ours to start) by changing it so that's exactly what you want. First of all, we will help you quickly by finding a plan that closely matches your budget (your or ours to start) by changing it so that's exactly what you want, the price of it to stay within your budget, will help you see all the other costs associated with your particular property and build (how much, if anything, you do yourself, the cost of the site, and the rest of the construction), and help you with the timing of financing if you need it (we provide free plans, our rates, and turn a key score - the banks require it) and help you get it to you on your time with shipping, sending your package, depending on what time of year you order.
