Druck season 3 cast

Photo: shutterstock.comCast iron, well taken care of, can last a lifetime at least in the kitchen. Aside from cleaning your pan or frying pan after each use, seasoning cast iron ranks as the most important step you take toward preserving this type of cooking utensil. Herbs is a simple process that allows a natural nonstick coating, one that not only makes cooking with cast iron more enjoyable, but also much more convenient. How do you season cast iron? Read on to learn the steps involved! STEP 1 To start, preheat the oven to 350 degrees Fahrenheit before thoroughly washing the cast iron. Use a combination of hot water and dishwashing liquid to eliminate any residue that has accumulated over time. Once done, rinse with water and dry the pan or frying pan with a soft cloth. In the future, remember to use dishwashing liquid when cleaning your cast iron, as the soap reduces the effect of seasoning. After use, simply rinse the cast iron with water and wipe it off with a kitchen towel. Photo: shutterstock.comSTEP 2 Then choose an oil to use in your herbs. Some experts say that refined flaxseed oil does the best job. It's far from the cheapest option, though. Crisco or lard work well, but really any vegetable oil will do, as long as the smoke point-the temperature at which it starts to smoke- is above your normal cooking temperature. Above all, make sure that you do not use oil with a strong taste. STEP 3 Pour in the oil of your choice, spreading it around to evenly coat the pan or frying pan. For best results, rub in your chosen oil with a cloth or paper towel. Cover every square inch of the cooking surface. STEP 4 Place the cast iron upside down in the preheated oven and let it rest on the oven rack with a piece of aluminum foil underneath. The goal here is for the pan or frying pan to heat until the oil has reached its smoke point. Then and only then is there a chemical reaction that results in the desired nonstick coating. Different oils have different smoke points. To bring flaxseed oil to the smoke point, place your oven on its maximum heat seat. If you use vegetable oil, keep it at 350 degrees. Bake the cast iron for about an hour, then turn off the heat and allow the metal to cool completely before removing it. Additional tips In the end, the cast iron needs to be seasoned again. To delay that for as long as possible, remember to use dishwashing liquid when cleaning the cooking utensils. Just rinse it with water, wipe it off with a soft cloth, not with a scouring pad. Add a little salt before scrubbing the power, if necessary. When the cast iron surface becomes dull and sticky, you know the time to season has come again. The hit ABC show has been a staple since her hair in 2009, earning dozens of awards over the years. Unfortunately, all good things have to come to an end, and we have to say goodbye to the Dunphy-Pritchett-Tucker clan. To help you prepare, you might want to take a quick trip down memory lane with these photos of the original actors from Season 1 to today. You won't believe how much the cast has grown, and you might find yourself crying in old reruns after. We get it - there's nothing more reassuring than a few laughs from Gloria, Cam, Phil and the rest of the crew! 1 out of 22 Dan: Julie Bowen as Claire Dunphy Claire is definitely the tougher parent, so she often butted heads with her children, especially her eldest daughter, in the early years. 2 of 22 Now: Claire Is a Cool (er) Mom Now, she has her parenting and professional stride, which took a lot of finagling with her father, Jay. 3 of 22 Then: Ty Burrell as Phil Dunphy 4 of 22 Now: Phil Is as Goofy as Ever Not Much Has Changed With Phil's Sweet Personality, and We Wouldn't Have It Any Other Way. 5 of 22 Dan: Sarah Hyland as Haley Dunphy Haley was the image of a rebellious teenager back in Season 1, often more concerned about her social schedule and boyfriends than school. 6 out of 22 Now: Haley is a mother Although she is still the it girl we know and love, Haley has grown up a lot in 10 years. She even gave birth to a baby of her own. 7 of 22 Dan: Ariel Winter as Alex Dunphy Smarty-pants Alex never misses a chance to fact-check her relatives-especially her older sister, Haley. 8 out of 22 Now: Alex is all grown up and graduating college! She finished at CalTech in season 10, and we're sure she has something very ambitious in mind for her future. (NASA, perhaps?) 9 of 22 Dan: Nolan Gould as Luke Dunphy Nolan was only 10 years old when Modern Family began, and you won't believe what the youngest Dunphy looks like now. 10 out of 22 Now: Luke Is a Major Heartthrob The now 20-year-old has grown up in earnest. I think it goes without saying that it's pretty crazy to have spent ten, coming on eleven, years on a TV show, he told C'est Prune magazine. That's almost half my life. 11 of 22 Dan: Ed O'Neill as Jay Pritchett Everyone's favorite grouchy grandfather made waves with his young wife and stepson. But his adult children, Claire and Mitchell, never shied away from giving him a reality check. 12 out of 22 Now: Jay is slightly less grumpy He still has his crabby moments, but we now know that Jay is secretly a softy. And what about that dog bed business? 13 out of 22 Dan: Sofia Vergara as Gloria Delgado-Pritchett Gloria and Jay may have seemed like an unlikely couple at first, but she won over all her family members over time. 14 out of 22 Now: Gloria is still the greatest Gloria is a beloved member of the cast, and her and Bickering still tearing us apart today. 15 of 22 Then: Rico Rodriguez as Manny Delgado How sweet is little Manny? Gloria's adult son son everyone's heart with his wise words. 16 of 22 Now: Manny is as cute as ever Even as an adult, Manny still knows how to tell the audience aw when he takes the screen. 17 of 22 Dan: Jesse Tyler Ferguson as Mitchell Pritchett Mitchell and his husband Cam were new dads when Modern Family started, and they were immediately one of the favorite combinations on the show. 18 of 22 Now: Mitchell wears fewer bath sweaters That hasn't changed, but Mitchell's type-A personality has been a little relaxed over the past decade. Focus on a little. 19 of 22 Dan: Eric Stonestreet as Cameron Tucker Cam is the most charismatic character of the bunch, and his fun-spirited personality illuminates Mitchell's more practical one. 20 of 22 Now: Cam Is Still Cam He's still as colorful and over-the-top as ever, and we hope that never goes away. 21 of 22 Then:

Aubrey Anderson-Emmons as Lily Tucker-Pritchett Little Lily was the group's baby for years, but Aubrey only officially joined the cast. 22 of 22 Now: Lily Is a Little Lady Lily is snarky, cheeky and sweet, just like her parents and her extended family. Greg Gayne/Netflix The Ranch ends, but we still have plenty of episodes to enjoy before it's gone for good. The show began in 2016, and the first half of its final run will begin on September 13, according to Deadline. Not only will it be the same Bennett family hijinks we all know and love, but it will also feature a guest star that you will definitely recognize. According to the latest trailer, Kurtwood Smith will appear in the upcoming season. You'll probably remember Kurtwood from That 70s Show, where he played Red Forman, the father of Ashton Kutcher's friend. If that doesn't ring a bell, you might know Kurtwood from his roles in RoboCop, Deep Impact or Star Trek. We're sure there are other surprises in store (fingers crossed for another Molly McCook cameo!) but it looks like the cast will otherwise stay the same. Here's everyone we know to return so far. Ad – Continue reading below Ashton Kutcher as Colt Bennett Colt returns home after a failed football career to help his father's family ranch in Colorado. In the latest trailer, it seems his biggest obstacle is to reconcile Abby with him. In real life, Ashton is married to Mila Kunis and they have the most adorable family ever, no arguments. Debra Winger as Maggie Bennett Maggie is Colt's mother and Beau's ex-wife. She's a series regular on The Ranch, but eagle-eyed fans pointed out that she's nowhere to be found in the trailer. This doesn't necessarily mean they won't be in the next season, but it certainly seems suspicious. Debra has appeared in Terms of Endearment and An Officer and a Gentleman. Sam Elliott as Beau Bennett actor is back as Beau. He seems to keep himself pretty busy by giving Colt a hard time (with Abby, no and steamy with Kathy Baker's character, Joanne. Sam was finally nominated this year for his first Oscar, but he has been in numerous award-worthy films such as Road House and The Big Lebowski. Elisha Cuthbert as Abby Abby and Colt are definitely a cute married couple, but she's about reached her limit after he betrayed her trust. It's clear they're separated in the new clip, but it looks like Colt isn't ready to give up yet. Elisha was in The Girl Next Door, Happy Endings, and 24.
