They go in search of some drugs and are accidentally deported to Mexico where in their desperation to get home they agree to drive a van back to the United States so they can get back in time for a show they are about to play. Not knowing the properties from which the van is built, they return to have a couple of women hitchhiking while avoiding the cops they don't even know they follow. This comedy details the life and times of two completely different strangers, (Cheech and Chong). In this film, Cheech is driving when he sees a woman arrested trying to hitch a ride and he then turns the car to pick up this woman. I came to find out that the woman was Chong disguised as a woman to hitch hike with someone because her car broke down. We see that they have a common resemblance that makes these unlikely friends of the pair, and their marijuana. The two unemployed men try to get some drugs throughout the movie. They end up going to Strawberry's house to try and pick up some mote, but it turns out to be a long day before they can get high. Strawberry who is a former Vietnam veteran goes out with Cheech to get some marijuana, and once it was strawberry's house is turned into some kind of drug party. The party is overrun and Cheech has to get Chong out of the house before the police. <garry.myles@mercury.co.uk>> <garry.myles@mercury.co.uk>> He. They eventually play in a band together and go on the road to play a concert. Cheech and Chong drive a van made of marijuana across the Mexican border, and have to elude the cops trying to arrest them. They come face to face with the cops trying to catch them a few times during this movie. Without them knowing they were driving a van that's made of girl. As they didn't know about the van, they continue to search everywhere to try to find some smoke, not knowing it's right under their noses. They will eventually find a way to trick the police and their dogs. They take viewers on a comic begriaming ride to the end. This was a very popular film for the hippie generation in the late 1970s and 1980s. Up in Smoke is a comedy film that was released in 1978 and has a running time of 1 hour 26 min.
