The problem with quotes on the Internet is that it's hard to verify their authenticity. – Abraham Lincoln (source: internet) You will see many versions of the internet honest Abe tells you not to trust quotes on the Internet. You will probably have a friend or frenemy post one for you after you post something that you do not believe to be true or accurate. If you post something on social media and you get back a meme Abe Lincoln tells you that you don't believe everything you read on the internet, they tell you to doubt what you posted is true. If you need it, Abraham Lincoln was born in 1809 in a shingee in Illinois, and in 1865 he was murdered. It was more than a century before the birth of the Internet. The cabin and the White House were out of power. It wasn't until Benjamin Harrison's administration in 1891 that the president could light a light bulb, even if he wouldn't do it for fear of shock. Unfortunately, there was no wifi or mobile phones. Even stale phones were invented only 11 years after Lincoln's death. Inaccurate quotes and fake news had to spread more slowly during Abraham Lincoln's time, in printing through newspapers, pamphlets and books, or by oral word. The Telegraph helped him spread faster, with coastal service to the end of Lincoln's life. The problem with Internet quotes is that you can't always depend on their accuracy –Abraham Lincoln, 1864. Don't believe everything you read on the Internet. –Abraham Lincoln You can't believe everything you read on the Internet. –Abe Lincoln, 1868(Have on the note that this would be three g. since his death) The problem with the quote on the Internet is that it can't be used to be he real. –Abraham Lincoln Don't believe that on the Internet we have this picture with a quote. –Abraham Lincoln The most important thing on Facebook is that you can quote something and completely extort the source. – George Washington If you see a great quote, you may want to do an online search to see if it is correctly attributed. If it's easily extracted, you might find the original resource listed on reputable websites. However, if it has been spreading for some time, you may find it in a number of compilations of citations on less-selected web pages. Use a little rational thought to see if the quote matches other quotes from the same person. Does Gandhi or the Dalai Lama advocate violence? Probably a fake. Does the historical figure talk about something that was invented after her time? Definitely a fake. Is this a prediction that seems too specific to events far in the future? Probably a fake. Among Abraham Lincoln's 117 best quotes are the great president's thoughts on people, life and leadership. Lincoln was born in a one-bedroom brunar cabin and experienced numerous fights and backlogs in his life. His thinking- The ability to win friends, and making wise decisions has allowed the U.S. to remain as one during its most important war. Given that many are the best president of the United States ever, Lincoln knew how to do things. Read more about Abraham Lincoln on the White House website. Abraham Lincoln's quote means something. A worse man can't be found as a man doing it. 3.) You have to grow on your own, no matter how tall your grandfather was. 4.) You can't build character and courage by taking a man's initiative and independence. 5.) Do not change horses in the passage of the stream. Important quotes These Abraham Lincoln quotes are important to his historical perspective. Whenever I hear someone arguing about slavery, I feel a strong impulse to see that it's been tried on it personally. Wait until you put your feet in the right place, then stand tightly. My big concern is not whether you failed, but whether you are satisfied with your failure. There's another old poet whose name I can't remember, who said, The truth is the daughter of Time. To sin with silence, when you should protest, makes cowardly people. Always bear in mind that your own resolution is more important to success than any other. Things can come to those who wait, but only things left by those who are in a hurry. The ballot is stronger than the bullet. It really hurts to assume I've wronged someone on earth. Funny Lincoln says that the angry splitter shows his sense of fun in these Abraham Lincoln quotes. Tact is the ability to describe others as they see themselves. My friend is the one with the same enemies as you. I walk slowly, but I never walk back. No man has a good enough memory to be a successful liar. If that's coffee, bring me some tea. If this is tea, get me some coffee. How many legs does a dog have if you call that tail a leg? Four. Just because we say it's a tail leg doesn't mean it's a leg. Marriage is not heaven or hell, it is simply a lie. You can fool some people and all people all the time, but you can't fool all people all the time. When you have an elephant behind your hind legs and he's trying to escape, it's best to let him run. What kills skunk is the publicity he gives himself. No matter how much cats fight, there's always a lot of. When I hear a man preaching, I like to see him act like he's fighting it. Ordinary people are the best in the world: that is why the Lord makes so many. Many years ago I learned that in a fight between a husband and a wife, a third person should never have come between a woman's skillet and a man's axe. It's better to keep your mouth shut and think he's a fool than to and remove any doubts. The famous Abe In this sad world comes grief for all; And to the young, he comes with the most bitter agony because he doesn't know them. I've had enough experience to know what I'm saying. If a man says he knows something, then he has to show how he knows it. Don't let anyone dry out who thinks he's right, and we might make it. I am very concerned that this Union, the Constitution and the freedoms of the people will be in line with the original idea for which this fight was made, and I will be truly happy to be a humble instrument in the hands of the Almighty and this, his almost chosen people, for the thursty of the subject of this great struggle. True patriotism is better than the wrong kind of devotion. Tip: Some of these Abraham Lincoln quotes make great photo captions on social media. Quotes about mother Everything I am, or I hope I will, owe my angel mother. He can squeeze the most words into the slightest idea of any man I've ever met. On the subject of education, which does not foresee imposing any plan or system that respects it, I can only say that I see it as the most important topic that we can deal with as human beings. Beaver build houses; but they built them in now differently, or better now than they are, five thousand years ago. Ants and honey bees provide food for winter; But just as they did when Solomon referred them to sluggard as a pattern of prudence. Man's not the only animal working, he's the only one who improves his work. We're going to have a cow at work to hatch an egg before we break it. Stick with the bulldog grip, and chew and suffocate as much as you can. Any nation that doesn't respect its heroes won't last long. Work is an excellent resource from which almost all, if not all, of human comfort and urgency are drawn. The best way to repeal a bad law is to strictly enforce this law. Abraham Lincoln Beer Quote I am a solid believer in the people. If we give them the truth, they may depend on them facing every national crisis. The big point is to bring them real facts and beer. Abraham Lincoln On Life There can be fame in failure and despair in success. Never regret what you don't write. Everybody likes a compliment. Whatever you are, be good. The secret to success is preparation. Genius sucks the way. It is looking for regions that are so far unso.' The way a young man stands up is to improve in all the ways he can, never suspect that anyone wants to obstruct him. Don't leave anything for tomorrow that we can do today. They broke bad promises better than kept it. All creations are mines, and every man is a miner. In this difficult world, we are never quite satisfied. Let us believe that justice will be possible, and in this faith we hope to do our duty to the end as we understand it. Important principles can and should be ability and taste to read gives access to what others have already discovered truth is generally the best option for defamation. Abraham Lincoln Internet Quote — not verified ☹ the problem with Internet quotes is that you can't always depend on their accuracy. Abraham Lincoln, 1864 (often seen on Facebook posts) Abraham Lincoln Quotes About Friends I don't like this man. I'm going to have to know him better. Let them pass; let it make past differences like nothing will. Don't I destroy my enemies when I squeeze them? It's an old and real maxim that a drop of honey captures more whims than gallons of bile. So with men. If you'd get a man for your cause, first convince him that you're his sincere friend. The better part of life is his friendships. In leadership In times like the present, men should not say anything for which they would not be held accountable simultaneously over time and for an eternity. I like to see a man who's proud of the place he lives in. I like to see a man who lives so that his place is proud of him. Nothing precious can be lost if you take the time. I've endured a lot of ridicule without great malice; and have received a lot of goodies, not quite without ridicule. I'm used to it. When I'm preparing for my intellect with a man, I spend a third of the time thinking about myself and what I'm going to say and two-thirds about him and what he's going to say. Property is the product of work; property is desirable; it's a positive good in the world. If you once make up for the trust of your fellow citizens, you can never restore their respect and trust. It is true that one day you can fool all people; you can even fool some people all the time; But you can't fool all people all the time. If there's something a man can do well, I tell him to do it. Give him a chance. I'm pretty inspired by silence, and whether it's wise or not, it's at least more unusual these days to find a man who can hold his tongue than find a man who can't. Lincoln's Gettysburg title Here is the text of Lincoln's most famous speech, the Gettysburg address: Four estimates and seven years ago, our fathers on this continent, a new nation, conceived in Freedom, and dedicated to the suggestion that all men are created equal. We are now engaged in a great civil war that tests whether this nation or any nation, so conceived and so committed, can last for a long time. We met on the great battlefield of this war. We have come to dedicate part of this field as the final resting place for those who have given their lives here so that this nation can live. It is entirely appropriate and appropriate for us to do so. In a larger sense, however, we cannot devote — we cannot dedicate — we cannot dedicate — this soil. Brave men, live and live who fought here, they hesimed him, far above our poor power to add or subtract. The world will never forget what they are saying here, but it can never forget what they did here. It is for us here to focus on the unfinished work that those who have fought here have so far made such good progress. Instead, it is for us to be dedicated here to the great task that has remained before us — to take from these honorable dead a greater devotion to this cause, for which they have given the last full measure of devotion — that here we very much decide that these dead will not die in vain — that this nation will be a new birth of freedom under God — and this government of the people, the people, the people, will not die from the earth. Watch abraham lincoln's other speeches. Inspirational As a man who has worked through many rounding, you will find some pearls of wisdom in these Abraham Lincoln quotes. All my life, I've tried to extract an egg and plant a flower wherever the flower would grow in my mind and mind. Freedom is the last, best hope to Earth. Most people are as happy as they choose to be. Things can come to those who wait, but only things left by those who are in a hurry. Character is like a tree and reputation as a shadow. Shadow is what we think about it; The tree is the real deal. For some to achieve great success is proof to all that others can achieve it. I've always found that mercy brings richer fruits than a strict right. In the end, the years in your life don't count. It's a life at your age. No man is good enough to control another without the consent of another. Books serve a man that his original thoughts are not very new at all. He has a right to criticize who has the heart to help. They should be too big to be resentful and too noble to give. What it will be, and none of our prayers can arrest the ordinance. A house divided against itself cannot stand. It inspires anyone who wants to live long, but no one would be old. The best thing about the future is that it comes one day at a time. I'm nothing, the truth is everything. Almost all men can tolerate the future, but if you want to test a man's character, give him strength. Give me six hours to chop the tree and I'll spend the first four sharpening the axe. Those who deny freedom to others don't deserve it for themselves. My experience is that people who are not vices have very few virtues You can't escape the responsibility of tomorrow when you're dodging. If I tried to read, much less answer, all the attacks that were made on me, this store could also be closed to any other companySaever other area is in mind that your own resolution to succeed is more important than any other thing. Specify that the thing can and must be done and then — find a path. Motivation on the topic If I do not assume that he will commission any plan or system that I respect, All I can say is that I see it as the most important topic that we can deal with as human beings. I don't think much of a man who's no more nu than he was yesterday. Predisposition to melancholy... Let's see it, it's an accident, not a mistake. I have never had a politician; I tried every day at the best of the best prices. If you were two-cheeked, would you wear this? A house divided against itself cannot stand. I remember my mother's prayers, and they always followed me. They've been clinging to me my whole life. There are no accidents in my philosophy. Every effect has to have its own cause. The past is the cause of the present, and the present will be the cause of the future. All these are connections in an endless chain that stretches from the final to the infinite. Don't worry when you're not recognized, but strive to be worthy of recognition. I leave you, hoping that the lamp of freedom will burn in your ned until there is no longer any doubt that all men are created free and equal. On religion These Abraham Lincoln quotes address the 16th president's spirituality. With regard to this great book, I must say that this is the best gift God has given to man. All the good the Savior gave to the world was through this book. When I'm doing well, I feel good. When I'm doing bad, I feel bad. That's my faith. I did what I did after a very full consultation and under a difficult and omeering sense of responsibility. Only I can trust in God that I didn't make a mistake. Lord, my concern is not whether God is on our side; My biggest concern is that I'm on God's side, because God is always right. Let us use resources dividing, we never doubt that a righteous God will give us a fair result in his good time. On Politics Always bear in mind that your own resolution is more important to success than any other. Almost all men can tolerate the future, but if you want to test a man's character, give him strength. I do everything I know — the best I can; And I'm going to keep doing this until the end. You're ambitious, which within reasonable limits does good and doesn't hurt. Careful people need to feel that the fate of civilisation on this continent is implicated in the issue of our competition. The government philosophy of school classrooms in one generation will be the philosophy of government in the next. In giving freedom to slaves, we guarantee freedom for the free — the honorable equals in what we give and in what we preserve. We will save Nobno or lose the last best, the hope of the earth. Then let us turn this government back into a channel into which it was originally set up under the framework of the Constitution. May your military action be strong enough to reced and maintain peace, and not strong enough to unnecessarily harass and persecute the people. Seven years ago, they were our fathers. on this continent a new nation conceived in freedom and dedicated to the suggestion that all men are created equal. There you have it — Honest Abe at his best!
