Kendall County Circuit Court - The E-Guilty/Traffic Ticket Payment E-Citation Program on January 24, 2016, Kendall County was approved by the Conference of Chief District Judges to operate the electronic citation program. Electronic transfer of the record on appeal to the Second Circuit Court of Appeals on April 25, 2014, the Illinois Supreme Court filed M.R. 18368, which sanctioned the continuation of the electronic transfer of the appeal record from 12 counties to the Second Circuit Court of Appeals, on a pilot basis under the amended Electronic Transfer Record Implementation Policy, originating in the district courts of Boone, Carroll, DeKalb, Dupage, Joe Davis, Kendall, Lake, Lee, McHenry, Ogle, Stevenson and Winnebago counties to the Court of Appeals, On October 1, 2012, the Illinois Supreme Court filed M.R. 18368, which expanded a pilot project that sanctioned electronic record transfer on appeal to the Second Circuit Court of Appeals to include an appeal record originating from Boone, Carroll, Joe Davis, Kendall, Lee, Stevenson and Winnebago counties. According to the pilot's extension, district clerks must electronically pass the record on appeal to the Second Circuit Court of Appeals. A paper copy is created and transported only upon request of the Clerk of the Second Circuit Court of Appeals. The pilot will allow lawyers, parties and appellate judges to electronically review, access and operate from the electronic record on appeal. The pilot makes physical transmission of the recording unnecessary, removes the cost of repeatedly transporting the recording back and forth from the clerk's appellate office. FYI's Kendall County is named after Amos Kendall, 1789-1869, an American journalist and statesman. In 1829, he went to Washington, D.C., and was appointed president by Jackson as the fourth Treasury auditor. Yorkville's website was chosen. The new building was completed in 1864 with a total estimated value of $22,000. In 1887, the court building was burning. The walls of the building were used for renovation, which was completed at a cost of $18,130. In 1998 a new courthouse was built.
