FPS games (first person shooters) are among the most exciting game genres out there. It is one of the most popular genres ever. In addition, it features a number of high-value games, including Halo, Call of Duty, Battlefield, Destiny, and many more. Believe it or not, there is actually a healthy range of FPS games on Android that you can dig into. If you have your finger ready to launch, here are the best FPS games on Android right now. Most of them require at least semi-decent equipment to play. They tend to have heavy graphics, high demand for internet usage, and are generally just high resources demanding games. Fortnite is another excellent FPS game on Android, but it's not in the Play Store, so we list here. You can click here for installation instructions in case you want to try that one! Call of Duty: MobileCritical OpsDead Effect 2Hitman SniperInfinity OpsInto the Dead 2Modern Combat 5NOVA LegacyPUBG MobileShadowgun War GamesPrice: Free to playCall of Duty: Mobile had the biggest game launch in mobile game history. It also helps that people actually like the game. It is a fairly standard online FPS shooter game with regular PvP as well as 100-player battle royale mode. Regular PvP includes standard deathmatch along with some iterations. Players can also customize their equipment and unlock more things. It's relatively new compared to most FPS games, but it's already one of the biggest names in all mobile games. Critical OpsPrice: Free PlayCritical Ops is one of the newer FPS games. It's technically still in the public beta without the full version yet. In this case, you can choose to be part of the counterterrorism unit and stop destroying or playing as a terrorist and cause destruction. It features online multiplayer modes, leaderboards, and decent graphics to create a pretty complete overall experience. The game has evolved substantially since its early days and manages to be one of the really great FPS games on Android not named PUBG Mobile or Fortnite.Dead Effect 2Cena: Free to playDead Effect 2 is a sci-fi FPS game with elements of horror, survival and RPG. You will play as the main character and you can choose one of the three protagonists. In addition, you will have a lot of devices, weapons and body implants that you will find and win during the game. It includes more than 20 hours of campaigning and plenty of upgrade options. Of course, you will be balancing your figure as well. It also has fantastic graphics. This is one of the better FPS games for players who have a story and campaign more than competitive matchmaking. Hitman SniperPrice: $4.99 with in-app purchasesHitman: Sniper is one of the more unique FPS games. Your character is perched outside the building, looking with a sniper rifle. Your task is to make different targets without anyone getting suspicious about your location. Teh It contains over 150 missions, various sniper rifles to unlock, leaderboards, and it also has some strategic elements. It's relatively cheap and can be a lot of fun if you prefer a little more strategy rather than raw, super fast action. Infinity OpsPrice: Free PlayInfinity Ops is one of the newer FPS games on mobile at the time of writing this article. It launched under a different name and re-branded shortly after. It boasts a multiplayer online competitive experience in sci-fi settings. The game contains above average social features, clans, various game weapons, jet packs and various game modes. Graphics and mechanics are also pretty good compared to most average FPS games. Most of the feedback game is surprisingly positive except for those who encounter errors. Into the Dead 2Price: Free to playInto the Dead 2 is one of the newer FPS games. It is equipped with a lot of the same mechanics from the first. You can run through a field of zombies to survive. The player gets tons of weapons to unlock and upgrade. This variant also includes some strategic elements and canine companions as well. Graphics are above average. It also plays well for being a mobile game and contains multiple endings. The game has a surprising amount of depth behind being a mobile game. It's a freemium game and it's never ideal. However, it's still an excellent FPS game. Modern Combat 5: eSportsPrice: Free to playModern Combat 5 is one of the most popular and traditional FPS games on mobile. The game comes with some decent graphics, tons of content, online multiplayer, and more. Its popularity virtually guarantees that there is always someone online to play with or against. It also comes with campaign mode, six different character classes that you can level up and customize, and support for hardware drivers. All this contributes to a very solid experience. These days, the game is even promoted as eSport.NOVA LegacyPrice: Free to playNOVA Legacy is the latest title in a series of popular FPS games. It's a sci-fi shooter that comes with full campaign mode, decent graphics, multiple game modes, online multiplayer mode and more. You can even craft and upgrade your weapons. Some of its tertiary features include leaderboards, character customization, and death cam replays in multiplayer mode. It's a freemium game. It makes him feel and play differently from his predecessors. Still, he's one of the best. Don't believe his 20MB claim, though. is much larger. PUBG Mobile and PUBG Mobile LitePrice: Free to playPUBG Mobile is a mobile port of very popular FPS games on console and PC. This game drops you to the island with 100 total players. The goal is to be the last one to stand. Equipment, weapons and vehicles are also scattered on the map. It plays surprisingly well for how new it is. In addition, the mechanics are on average, even for mobile FPS game. Fortnite is another excellent choice in the same FPS sub-resonant as PUBG Mobile. There are also some decent PUBG Mobile clones as well. Shadowgun War GamesPrice: Free to playShadowgun War Games is the latest game from MADFINGER GAMES, developers of the popular Unkilled, Shadowgun and Dead Trigger franchises (also great first person shooters). This one plays a lot like Overwatch titles. It's all online PvP with different characters with different abilities. It's brand new, so developers haven't added a lot yet, but more is coming in future updates. He had a bit of a rough release, so the Play Store rating is a bit low, but the updates fixed a lot of problems. MADFINGER other games could easily make this list as well. If we missed any of the best FPS games for Android, tell us about them in the comments! Hockey is the last of the big four sports in North America, although it also has a good international following. However, it just doesn't have the numbers that football or American football have. This means that developers do not pay as much attention to hockey as other sports. In other words, you have several options here, but let's just say they are not the mostrobusive. Still, there are some fun games to play. Here are the best hockey games for Android.Hockey All StarsHockey Nations 18Puppet HockeyPuzzle HockeyStickman HockeyPrice: Free playBig Win Hockey is one of the most popular arcade hockey games for mobile phones. It plays like a fairly typical arcade sports sim. You collect different players, put together a team, and pit that team against opponents. It's not an officially licensed title, so the players aren't real, but there's still a lot of work to be done. Some of the game features include various customizable unlock, fast PvP game modes, and you can even play with or against friends. It's nothing like ea NHL's last game, but it's going to get you. Blocky HockeyPrice: Free / $2.99Blocky Hockey is a simple arcade hockey game. He's using running mechanics. You skate on the track. You need to switch stripes and move on to avoid the opponent. It contains a lot of playable characters, combat, multiplayer and retro style graphics. There's nothing else to play with but that. It's accessible, cheap and fun to play. It's good to kill 20 minutes between periods. ESPN and Yahoo fantasy hockeyCeach: FreeESPN Fantasy Sports is a decent fantasy sports platform. It supports most sports, including hockey. The application allows you to create or join leagues, design a team, set up a list, browser free agencies, conduct trades, and communicate with other managers in the league. That's basically all he has to do. The application has an occasional defect. We recommend a double check to make sure that your rosters are set up correctly. Otherwise, it's a decent, if occasionally slow, fantasy app Hockey 2020Price: Free to playFranchise Hockey 2019 is a fantasy hockey simulator for CBS. We thought that was weird, because NBC has rights to hockey games in the U.S., but it doesn't matter. The game allows you to build a team, simulate the entire season, train your players and more. It's mostly a collector's game. This means that there are freemium elements and loot boxes in the form of player packs. It's better than previous games in the series. However, its freemium mechanics are still quite aggressive. It's otherwise fun to play. Rage: HockeyPrice: $0.99 + $0.99Ice Rage: Hockey is a top-down arcade hockey game. You have a goalie and a skater. You throw the puck until someone scores. It's kind of like a hockey version of air hockey. The game includes local multiplayer support for two players on the same device. We thought it was pretty unique. In addition, there is a tournament mode for a small variety. It's a simple arcade game at its core. It's also not a freemium game, and it's a rarity in the mobile gaming space. The game is a good time killer, if nothing else. Hockey All StarsPrice: Free playhockey all stars is a decent overall hockey. You get a joystick and some buttons that really control the players on the ice. The game is smooth and fun, especially when you come across one timer per timer per timer. However, it is free to play the game with free play elements. So, you can expect quite a grind in order to get better players. Otherwise, it's one of the better mobile hockey games. Hockey Nations 18Ceach: Free / Up to $4.99Hockey Nations 18 is a decent arcade hockey game. It is also the same developers hockey classic 16. This represents three vs. three hockey between six nations. This includes 40 North American teams, 27 Russian league teams, 19 international teams and two All-Star teams. It has you games per hour limit and you can buy more if you want. In addition, it's without the usual free play elements that plague mobile games. It's pretty good for what it is, and despite its name, it still gets updates from 2020.Puppet HockeyPrice: Free to playPuppet Ice Hockey is another arcade game with hockey elements. It's a 2D game with one against one game. You shoot the puck over the ice and the other player returns it. Whoever scores the most goals wins. There are power-ups, really fun animations and more. However, at the end of the day, it's just Pong with a hockey theme. Still, it's okay to time a killer, even if it's a freemium game. Puzzle HockeyPrice: Free playpuzzle hockey is a hockey match three game. You probably know how to play match three games. You move symbols on a grid until you reply to three or more symbols. The resulting matches help you score goals, save and win matches. It's licensed game so there are real hockey players in this one. However, at the end of the day, it's a match three match with hockey themes rather than real hockey. It still gets you through a 20-minute break. Stickman HockeyPrice: Free / $2.27Stickman Ice Hockey is one of the few hockey games with real hockey mechanics. You skate on the ice, score goals and do other hockey things. He's got a 90s style. Older fans should feel at home. The game also includes four difficulty levels, 46 teams, different season modes, multiplayer pvp and hardware driver support. That makes it probably the best hockey game available on his cell phone. It's definitely not perfect, and it has its share of mistakes.
