Cheese America's Older Sisters About Older Brothers Older Sisters Older Sisters, The Nation's Largest Donor and Volunteer-Backed Advice Network, holds accountable to children in their program to achieve measurable results such as educational success, avoid risky behavior, higher aspirations, greater confidence and better relationships. Partnering with parents/parents, schools, corporations and others in the community, older brothers Older Sisters carefully examines children (Littles) volunteer mentors (Bigs) and monitors and supports these one-to-one mentoring matches during their course. The Older Brothers Older Sisters Youth Results Survey certifies that its advice programs have proven positive academic, social emotional and behavioral outcomes for youth, areas linked to high school graduation, avoiding juvenile crime, and college or job readiness. Big Brother offers older sisters children facing adversity with strong and enduring, professionally supported one-to-one advice relationships that change their lives for the better, forever. The mission has been the cornerstone of the organization's 110-year history. With more than 300 agencies across the country, older brother older sisters serve nearly 170,000 children, their families and 170,000 volunteer mentors.
