This app is only available in the App Store for iPad. Now available, the OFFICIAL app for Baptist Hymnal (2008)! This FREE app includes over 200 favorite hymns with full lyrics and four-part voice lines. Created from the same main files used for the print edition, this app includes access to all the same great features that you have in the printbook, plus some only digital features!

Features include: - full screen, iPad-optimized pdf-based four-part print music for over 200 hymns - create setlists of hymns to match the order of service - flip through multipage hymns with a quick drag - search for title hymns, writer, lyric, subject, and more! - tap the title or number of the anthem you want and jump straight to the anthem... no fumbling for pages. - Zoom in to the page to see lyrics and notes to the size you need... great for older members in your congregation who have trouble holding the heavier card or see the notes. - no Internet connection is required after installing the application. - SPECIAL OFFER: for just $9.95, you can purchase the remaining 674 contemporary hymns and cult songs included in the printedition, right from the app!

That's 28% off the price of regular printed anthem! Whether you're a cult planner, a member of the cult team, or just love to see the notes to the song you're singing, this app is for you! Apr 26, 2016 Version 1.3.8 Fix In-App Purchase Issue. I really quite having the anthem on my tablet, but one thing that frustrates me is that when I select a song, then open back the navigation menus (Title or Anthem Number) start me back to the top (A titles or anthem number 1). Would appreciate an update that opens these menus to the anthem you are currently open and therefore fixes this issue. It would be the difference in a 3-star rating and a 5-star rating! I reinstalled, but I only got 200 free hymns. These problems can be easily solved by reinstalling the application. Here's how>Delete the app from your iPad by pressing and holding the icon to make it shake, and then press X with a circle around it to delete it. Then, launch the App Store from the home screen and download the anthem app from time to time. If you tap the Purchased icon at the bottom of the page, it should show you a small cloud icon that tells you that you can download the app again. From within the app, click a gray-out anthem and re-purchase hymns. You will receive a prompt that will let you know that you have already made this purchase and that you can redownload the hymns for free. Thing you should download the entire package of hymns for you. You'd think a Christian organization like Lifeway would do more honestly. This app is pretty much a rip-off of those of us who paid 9.99 for it. Not to update during this time period is unacceptable. Nothing new here, I guess. I would like to add my agreement to other comments on several elements. 1. Face Face app more like a book where you can page from the anthem to the anthem. A right swipe should take you from 622 to 623, etc. 2. Selecting either OCD should open to the anthem you are viewing, not at the top of the list. 3. Setlist should page from one anthem to another, you should not have to return to the index every time. The search function is quite hopeless. Very hard to use. Typing What brings a whole list of titles, including, Stay with me. The function needs some polishing. I hope it will update soon. Our church no longer uses hymns (unfortunately), but as a musician, I don't like to sing from a screen with no notation. Developer Website App Support Privacy Policy The Baptist Hymnal (1991) follows 1956 and 1975 Baptist Hymnals and precedes the 2008 anthem of the Southern Baptist Convention. The pew edition is described by the editor 672 pages of hymns from a wide variety of authors and composers, praise and cult songs, receptive readings, and other cult improvements. For added flexibility, each hymn contains detailed, easy-to-use indices: the first line and key headings; the topical index of hymns; Scriptural readings; authors; composers and sources; the metric index of the songs; index of medleys. There are a number of company products, such as hymn sheets, a piano edition, and an anthem companion.
