FA Cup Swindon Town (A) Sat 7.11., 15.00 National LeagueSeason2019–20← 2018–19 2020–21 → Vanaraman known as the National League for sponsorship reasons The 2019-20 was the fifth season under the new National League championship in English football, the 16th season consisting of three divisions, and a total of 40.12 [1] As a result of the Covid-19 pandemic, the National League season was initially suspended on March 16, 2020 until at least April 3, 2020. The suspension was extended until further notice on 31 March 2020. [2] On 22 April 2020, the clubs voted to end the season, and promotions and transfers were still under careful consideration. [3] Given the re-opening effects of Bury F.C.'s suspension from EFL League One at the start of the season, it had already been assumed before the pandemic that no more than one club was to be transferred from the English Football League instead of the usual two, and that no more than three clubs instead of the usual four were to be moved out of the National Division. The cumulative impact of the premature end of the season and Bury's suspension from the EFL on the composition of the national league's three divisions has yet to be determined. On 17 June 2020, Barrow and Wealdstone and King's Lynn Town were selected as champions of their 17th division after National League clubs voted to close the finals tables on a game-by-game basis. So Barrow was promoted to League Two after Wealdstone and King's Lynn Town promoted to the National League. [4] [5] The promotion play-offs were held in all three divisions in order to decide on new promotion positions. The semi-finals took place during the last two weekends of July, and the finals took place from 1 to 2 August. The clubs were expected to verify and fund the COVID-19 prevention and testing process and were allowed to refuse their place in the competition without penalty if they could not meet this requirement. [6] On 1 January 2004, the Premier League committed itself to a decision on the [7] National League National LeagueSeason2019–20ChampionsBarrowPromotedBarrowHarrogate TownRelegatedEbbsfleet UnitedAFC FyldeChorley← 2018–19 2020–21 → The National League consists of 24 clubs.
