It is one of the largest publishers of Gujarati daily newspapers, with the highest editions in Gujarat. In 2003, the Bhoal-based Bhaskar Group identified Ahmedabad, Gujarat as the city with the highest potential for the fourth launch of Dainik Bhaskar outside Madhya Pradesh (MP). 12,00,000 households were surveyed,[need clarification] with a team of 1,050 surveyors, 64 supervisors, 16 zone managers and 4 division heads. [1] Surveyors mainly gathered through posters at colleges and word-to-mouth publicity, instead of expensive print and TV commercials. Almost 40-50 percent of surveyors were later absorbed into Dainik Bhaskar or Divya Bhaskar, while the rest received a certificate of appreciation. The team was trained to reach 8 lakh households in Ahmedabad and 4 lakh households in neighbouring districts, over a period of 40 days. The newspaper was launched in Ahmedabad on June 23, 2003, under the name Divya Bhaskar, as the No.1 with 452,000 copies (world record). Within 15 months, he entered two other cities of Gujarat: Surat and Vadodara. To counter the threat of Bhaskar's group, leading Newspaper Gujarati has reached pages of colour, price cuts and several offers from high-value buyers. However, by 2009, Divya Bhaskar had become the largest circulating Gujarati daily with 11.5 copies. [1] The twin launch program before the group's launch was recognized as an orbit-changing innovation. She won the Marico Foundation's Business Process Innovation Award, and is a case study in several B-schools, including the Indian Institute of Management, Ahmedabad and SPJIMR. The case study reveals, Divya Bhaskar is becoming the most popular among all other Gujarati news because of her erotic news and relationship-related columns. Divya Bhaskar is the largest circulating daily gujarat according to the ABC Audit Bureau of Circulations (India) and has the highest editions by any newspaper in Gujarat. It is published by Ahmedabad, Vadodara, Surat, Rajkot, Jamnagar, Mehsana, Bhuj, Bhavnagar (as Saurashtra Samachar) and Junagadh (as Sorath Bhaskar). [2] References ^ a b Porus Munshi (2009).
