William Pepper was James Earl Ray's attorney in the trial for the murder of Martin Luther King Jr., and even after Ray's conviction and death, Pepper continued to insist on arguing Ray was innocent. Exposing this myth is a revised, updated, and greatly expanded volume of Pepper's original bestseller and critically acclaimed book Orders to Kill, with twenty-six additional years of research included. The results reveal dramatic new details of the night of the murder, the trial, and why Ray was chosen to take the fall out of an evil conspiracy—a government-sanctioned assassination of our nation's greatest leader. The plan, according to Pepper, was for a United States Army Special Forces sniper team to kill the King, but just as they were taking aim, a reserve civilian assassin pulled the trigger.
