The official demon list (or official demon list) article unless it is strictly needed. The official demon list (or official demon list) is a community creation that categorizes different demon levels in the geometry line in order of difficulty. updates since April 2015. At the moment, the list ranks Tartare as the toughest demon level and was expanded in October 2017 to 100 and in June 2019 to 150, splitting the list into a main and expanded list, each with 75 levels. The community's transition to higher refresh rate displays allowed people to perform levels that were not yet complete due to smaller restrictions on recreational levels. List The main list and expanded list include subjectively ranked demon levels, which are added as a result of the average feeling of players, given the time that had to be put on levels and the skill needed to perform them in normal mode. As a control method, the lists are divided into two to distinguish between the most difficult levels of the game, which require higher skill and an average high demon level. There are demons on the heritage list who occupied the list but were pushed away when new levels were attached. The old list does not follow any order and receives updates when new demons are moved down. When a player wins a level that is numerous points off the list of their previous most difficult, it is known in the community as a jump. One of the biggest jumps belongs to nCaT when he won Thinking Space (#8), as his previous toughest was Bloodbath (#132), who jumped 124 places on the list, itriple defeated Celestial Force (his previous hardest was torrential storm staff official demonil leading a handful of people, also known to catalogue editors and helpers. Publishing illegal recordings and transmitting them as legal removes sender information from the list. Illegal records include speed hacks, noclip, autos, nerfs, macros, bypasses, etc. The FPS Bypass tool has been approved as of May 25, 2020, as long as players don't exceed the 300 fps limit. Level records must be in normal mode and in the live version of the level or in the appropriate fixed/low detail copy of the error. See bugfix and LDM instructions. The record holder must meet the percentage requirement for the level that is added to the list against this level. Posted videos need to be clicked. General instructions Verifications are not counted in the records in the list, but still on reward points. If you're in a group where people win levels on the same channel, the records are temporarily removed from the list. Bugfix and LDM instructions Records that use level built-in LDM are always valid. However, the timings must be perfect. Otherwise, you'll get 1% like me. Don't even think about trying this level (unless you want to rage and kill urself) until you've beaten other hard demons. If this is your first Nine Circles demon, I recommended you play Ultra Paracosm or. Before you even think about trying this level. So don't tell me I didn't warn you! Sonic Wave has become the great most demon of our time. Due to the timing of crazy waves and the impact of the headache-inducous nine circles, this level can only be beaten by the best of the best. Originally intended to compete with the massacre, it has scored that goal in the long run. It's #1 geometry dash's official top demon list, while Bloodbath is fighting to keep his place in the top 20. Sonic Wave easily crushes all other levels in trouble. The wave is almost impossible. This is easily first place. Black Blizzard requires almost perfect timing, while Sonic Wave needs PERFECT PERFECT TIMING. I only have 2% of this, I'm pretty. How did Sunix win this? No matter what people think of the carnage and the sound wave of bloodlust, it's the hardest thing to ever be verified because of the almost impossible wave part. It may be a more difficult level now, but that level would be impossible to be. If you play the sound wave after carnage, bloodlust or yatagarasu, you can see the fference in difficulties very clearly. Bloodbath Someone below said only mid-level players can win it. According to Webster's online dictionary definition, the intermediate player in the world who can beat Bloodbath This is the toughest level in the world. Undoubtedly. It took literally a staggering 403,565,297 attempts to complete this level. I can tell you that people who want to try this because be prepared to punch holes in the wall lol. ':(This is so hard, you can't finish it in one day. It could take weeks, months or even years. Compact rocket spaces, precise square and ball areas, UFO timing areas and deadly wave parts. This is also more difficult than the revolutionary and aftermath, which are also separate from the 3-part series. Very difficult, it took forever to get past just 1% and I couldn't even skip 5% in training mode. I've only won 666 demons, and this isn't as hard as the stereo madness of the training space, but since it's not on the list, I'm going to pick this one. If the yatagar outfit was on, I'd vote there, but if the stereo-madness was on, I'd vote on it, no questions that bloodlust is basically punctured and an extension version of the massacre, was once the hardest. Bloodlust is basically punctured and an extension version of the massacre is a supplication of the massacre your first attempt or finish below level 1000 in practice, congratulate yourself as the verifier took 120,000 normal attempts and 1,000 hours of playing time. How is the blood wave and sound wave over Bloodlust and Zodiac? Zodiac is easily the hardest with a 4x speed cube and cramped spaces. Bloodlust will be the plot and crimson planet the third. The Sonic wave is just a spectacular wave that you can also use. I admit there are cramped spaces, but not compared to anything I said up there. Everything at the level is grouped together. A small simple part that could have been easier to apply is the absolute pain in the hand. I can't see a thing! It's ridiculous that this isn't number one. A lot of GD players have said this is the hand at the level is grouped together. A small simple part that could have been easier, this is a more difficult and extended version of the carnage, and it is clearly more difficult than a sound wave. Yatagarasu Ok, so this level hasn't technically been confirmed yet, but it's harder than Bloodbath, The Hell Factory, Sonic Wave, Sakupen Hell (which has been hacked) and all the other competitors. Taking advantage of almost every known and created game mechanics created by more than 20 players, this is hands down the hardest level of the game. Spaceflight of less than one block, quadruple spikes, extreme miniwave, lightning-fast gameplay, confusing decorations and extreme rem remembering make this level. But this goes beyond everything I've level. And find some edited together videos of it before you even dare to consider otherwise. This level is crazy. I have 15,000 companies right now, and I can't even make it to the end. I've devoted half my time to playing GD at this level. But this goes beyond everything I've ever seen. 4 spike jumps, infinitely small ship openings and mini waves, which are demonstrably the hardest part of the entire Geometry Dash game. Don't try if you value your mental health. This level is 3 minutes long, longer than even Bloodlust, technically not yet released. A tight wave, fast-paced and precise timing make it really difficult. It must be #2. If (When) Riot confirms this, it will be the toughest demon in the game! This course would be harder than Tartarus, I think demons with huge difficulties, tend to be more difficult than people believe. More than 60,000 companies took it This one, which is CRAZY. Like a maniac. Xander556, which confirmed it, also said it was easily harder than blood loss was officially number 1 before the zodiac was released. I'm not very good at the game, but according to the demon list, it's the hardest and I trust a large group of great players to create that list. This is much harder than a sound wave and harder than blood loss and the planet Crimson. A very extreme demon in the long run. Crimson Planet Some timings are crazy and easily unparalleled timings in a plasma pulse finale, then that wave is crazy 10 times harder than bloodshirst Parts of the hardest wave in any leveling game. Short, but it's hell Uhm I don't agree Tartarus Rated is the hardest community, can confirm it's hard Don't keep this course worthy. Someone's best against a reborn Zodiac killer. Is that what he is? Because the Zodiac. It was literally impossible, and I agree! Intense miniwave sections definitely cause outrage, and this is also the level that made me break my phone. I agree that Sonic Wave is definitely the tightest wave EVER! I don't think this is a demon, but it's hard. Noobass downloaded it. I have to stay on the ice charcoal Diablo X This level should be the third hardest level to lose to AA and yatagarusa. If this level were not 55 seconds long and low, this level would easily be the most difficult GD level. #wave parts are hell. Black Blizzard Ok, all these like Sonic Wave, Bloodbath, Erebus, all are honest, kind of bound. Sakupen Hell, Bloodlust, Black Blizzard, Phobos, Athanatos, all really, really harder. IT'S BASED ON CARNAGE. I chose this because it's the hard doubles on this level and mini-double gravity samples are really tough! The rest is very annoying! What did I do? I just voted for this easy A demon on this outdated list, but I still made my point: P LoL There are many demons that are harder than this. This doesn't deserve number two. Anyone with decent skills like Cyclic, Riot, Souls TRK and more mid-level players can win it legal. Initially, the creator (Gboy) hacked it, but then made it legal in a coin update. ! I have 40% of Clubstep and 7% of this! It's too hard. Were you trying to make the world go crazy? You're out of your mind for The Contenders Kenos Unpopular Opinion, but I think this is harder than a horoscope. Aalto parts are extreme, and you need very precise timings to pass. All in all, the newly redesigned hyperbuffed and extended sakupen hell. The extended rebirth of buffed + sakupen hell. Npesta (his reaction tho) has confirmed. At the moment, the 4th President of the Ages has been the first of his all-time history. wave compartments. Sakupen's superbus. OH MY GOD, JESSS
