Usc columbia summer classes 2020

Taking courses over the summer is one of the best ways to catch up or get your degree faster. Training does not cost more than during a normal semester. There are hundreds of summer courses, so you can register for part-time or full-time from home (or anywhere, really!). Talk to your advisor about summer class options. Registration will open in spring 2021. Read our tips on how to be the most successful in summer courses. This interesting course, taught by Haylee Mercado, focuses on the American sports and entertainment company, including: background, influence, trends, collegial and professional sports organizations, ownership and unionization, and media portrayal. Submit a request to schedule a summer course. The University Chancellor sets up an official calendar followed by the University of South Carolina system.
