I'm not robot

reCAPTCHA

Continue

I'm not robot

reCAPTCHA
Continue

Past participle of ring

You can find out when to use a ring, rang, or rung depending on whether you need the present, past, or past and born (used has or have) form. Present: ring Examples: I always ring the bell after I knock. He rings twice before he enters. Past: Examples rang: I rang the bell after I knocked. He rang twice before he walked in. Past servicing: has or have rung Past symths are used with all perfect forms of verb. Current perfect examples: I have to ring the bell. She rang the bell. Past perfect examples: I rang the bell. She rang the bell. Future perfect example: I'll have a bell by noon if the automated system is still down. Conditional perfect example: I would ring if the automated system still didn't work. The ring's current ness is ringing. The jokes present are used as verbs. Examples: I'm ringing the bell. She rang the bell. We'll ring the bell. Pop Quiz 1. He rings/rings/rungs the bell to get students' attention. 2. We ring/ring/ring, but no one has opened the door. 3. She had rang/rang/rung the bell three times before I was close enough to hear it. 4. Are ringing/range/runging bell to start trading on the stock market. Pop Quiz Answers 1. He rings the bell to get the students' attention. 2. We rang the doorbell, but no one opened the door. 3. She rang three times before I was close enough to hear it. 4. They are ringing the bell to start trading on the stock market. Posted on Tuesday, June 10, 2008, at 4:55 amIs to answer another reader's question or comment, please click on the corresponding ANSWER button. If an article or existing discussion doesn't address an idea or question you have on this topic, use the Comment box at the bottom of this page.135 Ring Comments vs. Rang vs. Rung Infinitive inglese Past ázciple inglese Coniugazione del verbo to ring Orientation on / she / it was ringing he / she / it was ringing he / she / it will ring you will have ringing on / she / it will ring we will have ringing you will have the ring would ring Conditional on/she/she would ring he/she/he would ring I would be ringing you would be ringing on/she/it would be ringing we would be ringing would be ringing, they would be ringing, they would be ringing the Conjunctiva Imperative arrow_upward ringedpast tense ring is ringing. From Wiktionary Jump to Navigation Jump to Search To Ring To Phone To Ring Sounds Basic Form (Infinitive): Ring Past Simple: Rang Past Participle: Rung 3rd Person Singular: Rings Present Participle/Gerund: Ringing Answer Similar words Examples She remembers how she handled a call from one man who rang and spoke unsympatheticly about his daughter's eating disorder. Dozens of locals rang firefighters like hell ripped through offices and storage areas. We called City Link and asked them where the package was, they said it was delivered to our address and was signed by Jackson. Infinitive - Ring Contemporary Sorority - Ringing Trap Syging - Rung 1. Present Time Singular I Ring You Ring On/She/It Rings Plural Ring Ring Ring 2. Present progressive time Singular I am ringing You are ringing On/she/it rings Plural We are ringing Are ringing Are ringing 3. Last time Singular rang You rang On / she / it rang plural You rang Rang 4. Present Perfect Tense Singular I have a bow You have a rung On / she / it has a rung Plural We have a yarn you can rung Have a middle 5. The current Perfect Progressive Time Singular was Ringing You're Ringing On/She/It Was Ringing Plural We're Ringing You're Ringing Were Ringing 6. Past Progressive Tense Singular I was ringing You were ringing He/she/it was ringing Plural We were ringing You were ringing They were ringing 7. Past Perfect Tense Singular I had a rung You had rung On / she / to rung Plural We rung You rung You had at rung 8. Past Perfect Progressive Tense Singular I was ringing You rang On/she/it was ringing Plural We Rang You were ringing They were ringing 9. Future time Singular I will ring You will ring On / she / it will ring Plural We ring Ring Will ring 10. Future progressive time Singular I will ring You will ring On / she / it will ring Plural We will ring You will ring They will ring 11. Future Perfect Tense Single Singular I will have a yarn you can have rung On / she / it will have rung Plural We will have a yarn will have a yarn 12. Future perfect progressive singular time I'll have ringing You'll have ringing On/she/it'll have ringing Plural We'll have ringing You'll have ringing They'll have ringing