FOLLOW US I see a lot of complaints regarding customer service, so I thought I'd leave this little suggestion. I don't know how much of their CS is outsourced, but regardless, the phone support is really horrible. I always go to one of their stores with changes to my account, and any problem. I'm practically stuck with them, as I live in a 'dead zone', and Xfinity (Comcast) is the only signal that reaches us. They know they have me over the barrel. But when I go in, they always help me reduce mybill, remove any late taxes, and find special occasions for me. Last time in, without even asking, they gave me a month at 1/2 price, and gave me an additional month to recover payments. I could be the only... but I'm extremely pleased with them. There's rarely more than a 10-15 minute wait, and in-person customer service is stellar. On very rare rarissid occasions when I had to use the phone, it was quite frustrating. Going in person makes all the difference. I hope it's useful to someone out there!
