Osrs druidic ritual quest guide

Talk to KqemeeX north of Witch's House in Taverley. Ask him about Herblore and he will pass you to Sanfew. Sanfew guest house is located in the third store of Taverley Herblore. Talk to Sanfew and he will tell you that you need to collect raw rats, bears, beef and chicken, and that you have to dip them into Thunder Cauldron (Pictured). Collect the meat and go to the Dungeon of Taverley (south of the Herblore store). If you can get to Canifis, you can buy all these raw meats from Rufus Meat Emporium for 1gp each. Otherwise, follow these instructions: collect raw bear meat north of Falador, near the ice mountain, then get raw chicken from Falador Castle, raw beef from a multifunctional farming distribution south of Falador, then finally raw rat meat from Port Sarim. Then just go back to Falador and climb the broken fence for the link back to Taverley. An alternative policy for those who do not have access to Canifis is to use teleporter home spelling. Lumbridge, you can find cows, chickens; near Varrock there are bears; and varrock sewers are rats (There are also rats outside Lumbridge Castle). Go down the ladder to the Taverley dungeon and head north until you reach the armor in two suits. When you try to open the gate, they can come to life and attack you. Once you have passed the armor suits, go and dip the meat into the boiler. Go to Sanfew, who will tell you to visit KqemeeX. Go to Druid circles and talk to KqemeeX to collect your reward and learn Herblore. Druidic Ritual is a novice quest that serves as an introduction to Herblore's skills.
