Click here to learn more about a beautiful religious folk anthem (unknown offspring) that became popular for a wider audience in 2000 when it was included on the O Brother soundtrack, Where Art Thou? of the Noel and Ethan Coen. Excellent screenplay and George Clooney in one of his best performances. It's really in the river, not the river, for reasons I don't fully understand. It must have something to do with Baptist rituals that I'm not familiar with. Beautifully sung by Alison Krauss. Original Key No Idea Tuning Regular gCEA (works well in G bass) Tab Notes Played very solemnly. Between verse [A] and chorus [B] the bar briefly changes to 2/4 (for a break only) and immediately back to 4/4 again. Just the basic things with tabs, plenty of room for your own interpretation. PS: Fixed a minor bug and exchanged the pdf file. v2 must be accurate. Accurate.
