When the Orchestan is not for sale in its typical format, comparable seating is kept. You can buy these tickets online, but if there is any question about which seats can work best for you, you are encouraged to call us at (415) 358-1220. Plus-size patrons can enquire about the location and availability of our floating-poor seats in the orchestable as well as freestanding armless seats in the accessible rows. Those with mobility devices (cans, crutches, hikers, etc.) will have to check these items with a staff member to comply with local fire code regulations. At the end of the show, a usher will return the device to the guest, or at intermission on request. We strive to accommodate all patrons to the best of our ability. Please try to arrive early if you need help with access so that our staff attention to you as possible. Rest rooms As part of our renovation, we added new rest room Fully accessible toilets are situated at the lower level of the cinema. A lift in the lobby is available for patrons with mobility issues. Audio Assisted listening devices are available at our boutique in the foyer on a first-come, first-served basis. We ask patrons to leave a state-travelling ID or driver's license as deposit on all devices.
