Bourke street bakery menu

Bourke Street Bakery is your neighborhood bakery. We pride ourselves on making real food from the best ingredients, the old-fashioned way – by hand, with dedication and love. The Bourke Street Bakery has been baked and raised from humble beginnings in Surry Hills and has become one of Sydney's most iconic food destinations. We are proud to eat real food to the old fashioned Way: made from the best ingredients, by hand with devotion and love. orders@bourkestreetbakery.com Baker Paul Allam and Patisier David McGuinness founded the first Bourke Street Bakery in 2004. Since then, the small Surry Hills shop has grown to 10 more locations. Fortunately, the commitment to proper baking hasn't changed. Each outlet offers a selection of organic sourdough in flavors such as hazelnut and raisins; Soy and flaxseed; Fig and cranberry; Potatoes and rosemary (also known as Mr. Potato Bread). Then there are sausage rolls filled with lamb and harissa; Chicken and pumpkin; and pork and fennel. There is also a lot on the whole line for those with a sweet tooth. The stars in this department are the ginger and br lee tarts; Lemon and ricotta slice, and pineapple and coconut Danish. The savoury options to order vary in any location, but can also include pizzas or poached chicken sandwiches eaten at communal tables or window sills. Potts Point in particular has a slightly more nuanced menu. Our website is provided by JavaScript. To continue, please enable JavaScript in your browser settings.
