O Sunday School, in the Lord's day, Thy friendship suits me well, and the young and the old shall sing thy song, We are long in Sunday school. O Sunday school, on the Lord's day, Christ was your first teacher, the Holy Ghost, the great teacher, manifested in yours. O Sunday School, on the Lord's day, this testimony is sure that God, the Father of the Almighty, poured out His blessing on the Sunday School of thee, in the Lord's day, though the sun will be so bright, Or if the clouds are black with rain, I will be in Sunday School. O Sunday School, on the Lord's day, I am glad to see you, will you pass over me today? Without my pallor? RCGC Sunday School Guide August 30, 2020 – Fourth Quarterly Review Click here for the previous RCGC Sunday School Teacher Guide THEME: Eternal Prayer Opening Award: Father, please don't let me miss my award in heaven. (Scroll down for Sunday school RCGC August 23, 2020 HYMN) POEM OF REMEMBRANCE: And anyone who has seen houses, or brothers, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my name's sake, will receive 1,000 and inherit eternal life. – Matthew 19:29 Also Open Skies August 23, 2020 – Show the Bible a Bible passage of kindness: 1 Corinthians 9:16-27 KJV (Sunday School Manual RCGC 23 August 2020) 16 For though I preach the gospel, I have nothing to praise: for necessity is placed thy way; yes, wo unto me, if I do not preach the gospel! 17 For if I do these things willingly, I have a reward, but if against my will the dispensation of the gospel is done to me. 18 What is my reward then? Verily, when I preach the gospel, I can do the gospel of Christ without accusation so that I do not abuse my power in the gospel. 19 For though I am free of all men, but have I made myself a servant to all, that I may gain more. 20 And for the Jews I became like a Jew, that I might obtain the Jews; for those who are in accordance with the law, as in accordance with the law, that I may receive those who are in accordance with the law; 21 To those without the law, as without the law, (being not without the law before God, but by law unto Christ,) that I may obtain those without the law. 22 That the weak may I become as weak, that I may gain weaknesses: I have done all things for all men, that I may save some by all means. 23 And this I do for the sake of the gospel, that I may be dedicated to it with you. 24 Do ye not know that they who run in the race run all but one receives the prize? So run so you can get. 25 And every man who seekth mastery is moderate in all things. Now they do this to get the damaged crown; but we are incorruptive. 26 Wherefore, I run so, not so insecure; so I am lying, not as the one that beats the ether, 27 But I hold under my body, and bring it in the subject, that by any means, when I preach to others, I myself have not been caste. INTRODUCTION: The scriptures say don't muzzle the bull while he knocks the grain. It also says that the worker is worthy of his award. Thus, God has rewards for everything that makes him a realm. One day we will cross to the other side, where we will have a much greater and eternal weight of glory (2 Corinthians 4:17; Psalm 37:34; Psalm 91:8). TEXT REVIEW: 1 Corinthians 9:16-27 The Apostle Paul emphasizes in this passage that in order to receive eternal rewards, a believer must preach the gospel and be moderate in all. He outlines them as: A. Preaching the gospel. Preaching the gospel is a necessity for any believer who expects eternal reward. V. 16th. To receive a reward, he believes that the gospel must be preached willingly, not coercion. V. 17.iii. Preaching the gospel is not for monetary/material gain. V. 18. B. In addition to preaching the gospel, believers expecting rewards should: i. V. 19ii. V. 20-21. and Art. V. 22-23.iv. V. 24v. V. 25vi. V. 26vey. V. 27 LESSON LESSON 1 CURRICULUM. TYPES OF REWARD Suring must explain that Jesus Christ prepared crowns for the rulers (saints) in His coming kingdom. These crowns and their qualifications: The Crown of Life (Jacob 1:2). The qualification for this is that you must have experienced temptation and remain faithful. Other qualifications include overcoming the evils of a loving Lord and devotion to death (Ate 2:10). In corruptib crown (1Cor. 9:24-25). This is for those who patiently run the race to Heaven and who are moderate in everything. The Weece of Joy (1Tes. 2:19). You have to be a soul winner to get that crown. The Beelet of Glory (1Peter 5:4). A cone for real pastors, missionaries, and teachers. The Lord of Righteousness (2Timoty 4:8). This is for those who wait for the Lord and sincerely await His coming. EXERCISE CLASS 1: Students should remember the crowns they are likely to receive and what they do to it. LESSON 2 CURRICULUM: OTHER TYPES OF REWARD The teacher must make the student understand that in addition to crowns and leadership positions in The Kingdom of God as kings and priests, the believer will also be privileged to: i. Reign with Christ (Romans 8:17-18). ii. Behold, His face (Psalm 17:15; 22:4). iii. Inherit All (R.21:7). iv. Shine as a Star (Dan. 12:3). v. Be a pillar in the temple of God (Au. 3:12). vi. Have access to the tree of life (J.22:1-5; 22:14). vii. Be glorified with Christ (Galatam 4:7). CLASS EXERCISE 2: Class must remember other privileges that await faithful believers in Heaven. SUMMARY: Believers should not settle in well to do because they should be rewarded in a proper season. CONCLUSION: Knowing full well that we have this wonderful reward in serving God, what people should we be? (1 John 3:2-3). ASSESSMENT: Students should note that qualifications for crowns await faithful believers. FINAL PRAYER: Father, please help me do what is required (on earth) to receive a reward from you in the hewitting task: The student must keep a close eye on his life, sincerely wish these eternal rewards, and work to receive them.
