The first century aramaic bible in plain english pdf

This is a modern English translation from 1900+ years of Aramaic Old Testament called Peshitta. Aramaic was the native language of Jesus and Israel in the 1st century AD. This volume consists of the Main Prophets: Isaiah, Jeremiah, Lamentations, Ezekiel, Daniel. The translated text is the 6-7th century Ambrosianus Codex- The oldest Semitic Evidence complete. Old evidence of Peshitta is highly likely to translate from the Hebrew Bible in the 1st century CE in Israel by Christian converts from Jewish religions, or perhaps Syrian Christians from across the Israeli border. Either way, The Old Peshitta and New Testaments together formed the first Christian Bible. The authors have translated and published the interlinearity of a complete Aramaic Peshitta old deal, as well as the entire Common Common English Deal of NT, Torah, Psalms & Proverbs. 6x9 hardback 209 pages This is a literal 1900 translation of the year Aramaic Old Testament called Peshitta. This is English prose and a very literal translation of the first five books of the Old Testament (The Torah). Aramaic is the language of Jesus and 1st century Israel. The Peshitta Bible was the first entire Christian Bible in the world. The Old Evidence of the Peshitta itself is a translation of the Hebrew Bible prepared in the 1st century Masihi, according to existing evidence. No Peshitta scholars put peshitta OT past from the 2nd century Masihi. Thus, it gives an early view of the state of the Hebrew Bible at that time, as Aramaic and Hebrew were big Semitic languages and were about each other because any two languages could, share the same alphabet, write, grammar, many vocabulary and also the same designation with many words. Some old evidence of origin is Aramaic, as Daniel chapters 2 through 7 are inclusive, and Ezra 4 is through many 7. It also appears in Genesis 31 and a verse in Jeremiah 10:11. 228 advance, hardback.
