Spring is a time of harmony between the old and the new year, when the people of Melancoly forget the past to wait for what's to come. However, in the warm and sacred weather of spring, we cannot help but remember the spring of the old days. Spring is back - Min Key was born in the late 1950s by songwriter Min Kay, Schwan has returned as one of the songs about spring and new year, which is forever there with time with large generations of listeners and is still one of the most popular songs in each Tet until spring. This spring I'm not going back to this spring, it's a famous song written by songwriter Tina Lam Negan in the 1960s. The lyrics and melodies of the song are unfortunately slow and express the child's mood away from home on Tet's holiday, not reuniting with his family, not seeing his mother, not seeing the children. It was time to take the gold, when there was a pot of smoked cake, when there was a firecracker with the kids, but, the boy was away in the sky thinking about the union. The song was first released, by the time we were in the army, the experiment seemed very emotional because it shared the trust of every soldier away from home, always remembering his homeland and especially remembering his mother's image. - Author Nguyen Nguyenguk Negan Welcome Bahar - Pam Dinh Chung Welcome Spring was composed by composer Pam Dinh Chung in 2009. 1953 and life forever over time by every poem, every rhythm is cheerful, crowded like dancing, celebrating a new spring.
