Why was my account flagged? (Invoice marked or banned) Tagged accounts have followed our system as a tool to change third-party games in order to gain an advantage against opponents. Our warning system will allow you to continue playing, provided you no longer use any fraudsters. If your account has been permanently banned, you will not reopen, delete, or change details. The e-mail message associated with this account will not be used to create a new account.2. How to Find My Miniclip Unique ID on 8 Ball Pool Multiplayer? This number is created when you first create a Miniclip account and stays the same while the account is active because it serves as user identification.1)Open your game and below right you will see your nickname and profile picture. Click on it.2)When you click on it, your profile page will pop-up window showing your currency, achievements, total winnings and other details, including uniqueID.3. Troubleshooting lost connectionA way to fix connection to our game serversEe if you received a lost connection error message while playing Miniclip, there may be a problem with the local connection to our gaming servers. Let's try to determine if there might be a temporary network problem. Here are some steps you can try:1) Try the router. Try connecting your connection directly to your modem. Wireless connections are not recommended for online gambling. In order to ensure reliability, Browse that when playing on the Internet you are using a wired connection to the Internet;2) Closing other programs (especially p2p programs) when playing how to get the best results;3) Check to see other computers or devices (home) network does not need bandwidth need to withhold your connection to the game server;4) Check to see your ISP is not blocking or res frequentlytricing your connection (this frequently happens in the evening between 5pm and 5pm and 23.00) whether you have the same problem; You can check the your Internet connection by doing the test here: test the quality of your Internet connection, note if you line quality results under Class A then you are more likely to experience a lost connection. 4. Surprise boxes - Getting pieces from the points you already have If you're getting bits of points you already have in your Surprise Boxes, don't worry! There is a random side of surprise boxes that works a lot like a trading card. Initially, the first packages of trading cards you buy will always be filled with new cards that you still don't own. However, the more cards you have, the more it is for you to get recurring cards on the go! It will be exactly the same with the Surprise Boxes and therefore you will get some repeating cue cuts. Whenever this happens, however, you will still receive an extra in the Coin Pool in order to write it off
