Camdenton School District R-III Accredited By Advanced Camdenton R-III School District accredited by AdvancED. AdvancED is the parent organization of the North Central School Accreditation and Improvement Commission (NCA CASI), the Northwest Accreditation Commission (NWAC) and Association of Colleges and School Boards on School Accreditation and Improvement (SACS CASI). This action was taken at an AdvancED Accreditation Commission meeting held in Tempe, Arizona in June 2016. AdvancED provides nationally recognized accreditation, whose goal is to improve sustainable schools focused on improving student performance. To obtain accreditation, schools must meet advanced high standards, be evaluated by professional teams from outside the school and implement a sustainable school improvement process. About AdvancED AdvancED is a non-profit, non-partisan organization that conducts rigorous pre-K school quality reviews through 12 schools and school systems to help educators and their communities ensure that all students are aware of their full potential. While their expertise is grounded in more than a hundred years of working in accreditation, AdvancED is also committed to helping schools improve. Combining the knowledge and expertise of research institutions, the skills of management consulting firms and the grassroots movement's passion for educational change, we serve as trusted partners for more than 34,000 schools and school systems — employing more than four million educators and enrolling more than 20 million students — across the United States and 71 other countries.
