Dedicating a song is not as easy as it seems to take into account the feelings and emotions caused by the person to whom you give such a gift, doing something that you will never forget, accept it as a good detail or simply do not care. Maybe you should meditate a little more about which one is the right thing to give away. You have to listen and think a lot about this song; but above all, think a lot about that person listening to them that will let you know if it's really a song you want to dedicate. We will never know how many couples, couples, friends and so on have joined the songs of Ricardo Arjon, but if we want to know: Five songs by Ricardo Arcon that you would dedicate or who dedicated to you. In particular, I would choose this list of five songs.1. Flight: I would dedicate it to a woman who doesn't know how I really feel and will die for her.2. Forget this: for the man who shines through his absence, who, no matter how much he wants to forget, all he can do is miss it more.3. Cradle of the Belly: For this woman who brought a new creature into the world.4. You can live without you: ironically dedicated to this man, so that he could know what I really feel, and say: And to live not to be alive, to live for me - it is you. Today is a good day to start: Dedicated to the person who wants to encourage and encourage to move on: Today is a good day to start, make a new score and leave everything behind.
