You can create Android and iPhone apps that contain this data. You can also advertise there (although the ads are annoying). Disney is a pretty big media property these days. They own ABC, ESPN, Marvel, Lucasfilm and soon Fox. This means there are a bunch of ways to interact with Disney stuff. However, we believe that people looking for Disney apps want more classic Disney characters and experiences. I'm sure we can help you with that. Disney is massive again. They have movies, TV shows and music in several genres. We can help you find what you're looking for. Here are the best Disney apps for Android. Disney+DisneyNowFANDOMiHeartRadio FamilyInternet TV (link to Hulu)Movies AnywhereMy Disney ExperienceRedditOfficial Disney app release in recent times. It features a host of Disney shows and movies, as well as content from Disney-owned properties (such as The Simpsons) and some original content like The Mandalorian. It's a huge success for Disney so far and it's nobvious choice for a list like this. Plus, you can get Hulu, Disney+, and ESPN+ for $12.99, and it's honestly the best deal on streaming right now. This is easily the best Disney app. DisneyNowPrice: Free TV subscriber sign-upDisneyNow is Disney's current streaming service. You sign in to the service with existing TV cable provider content and get access to a set of Disney TV content. It includes children's shows, cartoons and live action stories, classic and new Disney characters, and even Radio Disney. Disney+ is an excellent streaming service, but you'll still get more Disney content from this than Disney+, and this will continue to integrate with the cable TV provider if you still have one. Fandom by WikiaPrice: Free with adsFandom by Wikia is a community of enthusiasts who create these small wiki pages for various media features. It used to be a collection of apps for different fandoms, but it's now one app with all the topics available. The app usually includes information about characters, movies, TV shows, and even some games. It's a neat way to learn trivia basically from any Disney movie, show or character. Of course, it's a bit of a niche product. Trivia buffs should definitely try this.iHeartRadio FamilyPrice: Free/$9.99 per month There are a few different versions of iHeartRadio. However, for Disney stuff, we recommend iHeartRadio Family. There are 80 stations of family-friendly music from a series of popular children's shows and movies. Of course, it contains a lot of Disney content. You can go to Disney princess songs at a dedicated station or just hit the regular Radio disney music. Of course, the perfect version has all these stations as well as current fans All you have to do is hit the search button to find these drives. The premium version adds unlimited bypasses and a host of other features. Internet TV (Sling TV, Hulu, DirecTV Now, etc.) Price: Free / Fluctuating Watching TV, YouTube TV, PlayStation Vue, and DirecTV Now all have a bunch of excellent childfriendly content. Thus, they all also have access to the Disney Channel along with a bunch of back-logged Disney content. For example, on Hulu, if you subscribe to a live TV service, you get a Disney Channel, but also access to movies like Pocahontas. The amount of Disney content per streaming service varies, but you can at least get the actual channel for all of them. Honestly, this is probably better than cable for Disney stuff because you get these on-demand titles as long as you've subscribed to a live TV service. In addition, Disney has a Disney+, ESPN+ and Hulu subscription package for a pretty good price here. Movies Anywhere Hinta: Free/Movie Prices VaryMovies Anywhere is probably the best app for Google Play movies. It is not its own standalone streaming services. Sign in with iTunes, Amazon, Vudu, or Google Play, All the movies you buy from all these services are now available in one place. The service has over 7,500 movies and, of course, includes tons of Disney movies and basically all Marvel and Star Wars movies on Disney+ when it comes out. Until then, however, this is probably the best place to buy a Disney movie and watch it. The app is buggy at times, but otherwise guite good. It also comes with Chromecast support. My Disney Experience/ Disneyland Price: FreeDisneyland Price: FreeDisney use it to plan your holiday, an interactive map of the park, and you can even buy your ticket and merch there. The Disneyland app is much the same. The app will show you information such as estimated waiting times, browser restaurant menus, and interaction with the park map. All Disney parks have apps separately, including in Paris, Hong Kong and Shanghai. Those heading to Disney World or Disneyland should definitely have these apps at hand. RedditPrice: Free/$3.99 per yearReddit is good for many fan bases and Disney fans are no exception. The site has dozens of subreddits for Marvel properties, Star Wars movies and, of course, classic Disney properties as well. You can talk to other people who like that you like and publish things that you care about. Reddit app Reddit app Reddit app Reddit app all moderately controlled, although people who haven't used Reddit before may find it difficult to adapt at first. Either way, this is a great way to read news about Star Wars, Marvel or other Disney properties and discuss these issues with other fans. The premium subscription removes advertising and also gives you some additional features. Official Disney appsHinta: Free (usually)We've said over and over again that Disney is a huge company. As it turns out, for most of these features there are various official Disney apps. Examples include the official Star Wars app, the efficial Marvel app, and the list goes on and on. These official apps are the best ways to interact with Disney's massive list of media companies. For example, you can watch ABC's programming on the ABC app or read the star wars app's latest Star Wars news. You can even read old Marvel comics on the Marvel app. It really depends on what kind of content each feature makes, but it's still Disney. YouTubePrice: Free/$12.99 per monthYouTube is an excellent, albeit obvious, choice for a great Disney app. You'll basically find any Disney song ever made there, plus lots of clips and memes from different movies or shows, reviews of different toys or games and basically everything else you can think of. Disney has an official VEVO channel with over 11 million subscribers. But once again, you probably already knew all this, so this part of the list is really just some confirmation bias. Yes, You can choose to pay $12.99 a month to remove ads, download videos for offline use, and a few other features. Free on Google Play The best file management apps Source: Andrew Myrick/Android Central Although many of us have changed the way we use our phones, there's one thing that never changes - we download a lot of things. I'm not just talking about apps, I'm talking about music files, documents, PDFs, or even new wallpapers. It's important to keep your files organized so you know where everything is or get rid of these old memes. If you tend to download boatloads of files to your smartphone, you need Simple File Manager Pro to keep them organized. This application offers an intuitive experience of accessing root files while giving access to microSD cards or USB devices. In addition, there are plenty of customization options that a theme that fits the At $1.19 on Google Play, some want simple file manager, but for those who want something a little more complicated, X-Plore File Manager is perfect. This app has an old-school Windows look and feel, while giving you all the features you want. You can even set up the app to access the files on your android phone and manage it from the browser on your computer. into a lightweight way to prevent storage from filling up. With features like smart recommendations, files suggest junk files that you can download and get rid of easily. Free Google Play Astrossa has been available in the Play Store for over 10 years and remains one of the best file management options. The app makes it easy to access your files and open annoying Zip and RAR files directly from your smartphone. In addition, you can manage your cloud storage option. Free on Google Play The best social media apps Source: Android Central Social Media is a fickle sister. It can be a great source of news and information and an easy way to keep in touch with your friends, but it's also frustrating as the latest trends and memes block your timeline. Fortunately, there are many different platforms where you can share your voice with like-minded people or create a great community. I've been a third-party Reddit stalker for years, but this year the official Reddit app aired past Relay, Boost and others for the most popular app option. Reddit's new website look has sparked a lot of minor discussion, but I've preferred to enjoy both new website looking at the constant improvements in the Android app. Now if only /r/Writing prompts don't suck up all my dinner breaks... The popularity of free Google Play Instagram continues to grow and it seems that competitors simply can't do anything to stop it. This app is one of the best and easiest ways to share your favorite photos, regardless of whether you're following your life or just like editing funny images. What's more, you get features like IGTV from some of your favorite publishers, and the app makes it easy to find even more people/brands to follow. Free on Google Play Face it. Play Store has a lot of Twitter apps, and while many of them are pretty good, none of them compete with Fenix 2. Fenix 2 strives to be the best Available Twitter customer with multi-account support for a very useful mute system. This doesn't even count customization options that allow you to adjust your layout while allowing you to make a theme that makes more enjoyable to use. $4.99 on Google Play Almost everyone you know is on Snapchat and for good reason because it makes sharing your life easier than before. You get private messages, free cloud storage, and different ways to make your photos and videos absolutely perfect. Free w/Ads on Google Play Best Photography Apps Source: Andrew Martonik/Android Central After years of potato images of mobile devices, we're finally at a point where our smartphones can take better pictures than some DSLR cameras. The Play Store opens the door to many different apps for taking, editing, and storing these photos, which in some cases serve as a digital memory bank. ProCam X unlocks the potential of a smartphone camera, which is quite a lot these days. The app allows you to manage different aspects of the image by providing professional controls such as ISO, white balance and even geo-tagging. With this app, you can even take RAW photos, which will unlock even better image editing after the fact. $5 on Google Play After taking a photo, chances are you'll want to edit it. Adobe Lightroom lets you make easy edits or add things and edit them as a professional directly from your smartphone. Adobe even has a built-in pro-level camera, so Lightroom will become an all-in-one solution for your mobile photography needs. Free w/IAP on Google Play for those who care more about backing up their photos and less about editing the pro level, then the only real choice is Google Photos. The app itself gives users some basic photo editing features, but occasionally gives you stylized photos of what Google thinks your photo should look like. In addition, you get smart auto albums, photo books, and you can create shared albums in just seconds. Free on Google Play Our smartphone cameras are more powerful today than ever before, we're not just talking about taking pictures. With an app like FiLMiC Pro, you can take professional videos and get the editing process under complete control. Those who already feel like recording a video on DSLR feel at home without having to drag a camera bag. $15 on Google Play Best Customization Apps Source: Joe Maring/Android Central Android's biggest advantage over competition is the ability to customize almost every aesthetic aspect of your device. You can customize everything from widget to app box appearance and even settings menu. These are the best apps you can use to get the exact look you want on your smartphone. If you had told me at the beginning of the year that the launcher I would use the most was a Smart Launcher, I would have laughed in my face. Then Smart Launcher 5 arrived and I fell in love. The flexibly rated app box is better than ever, and thanks to the integration of Icon Pack Studio and the off-screen widget system, SL5 makes it easy to build and replace them. Free w/IAP Google Play Lawnchair 2: gives you this Pixel Launcher feel with all the customizations that other third-party launchers. Adaptive icons are supported along with new box category features and more. Lawnchair lets you create the most complex or simplest launcher on your mobile device. Free on Google Play Kustom Widget maker KWGT's big brother, Kustom Live Wallpaper's range of single-stop teas has grown considerably on me this year. While the SL5's off-screen widgets are nice, nothing beats klwp's nifty edge-to-edge widget and element placement. Formulas and menus can be scary, but klwp's solid community, especially on Reddit, helps make any theme possible. Free/$4.49 on Google Play Can be frustrating once you've found the icon package you love, but there are a few apps that aren't included. Sure, you can send a request to the developer and wait for the update to come, but there is a better solution. Icon Pack Studio lets you create your own icon package while customizing each icon to your liking, and it works with almost any third-party launcher. Free or $4.49 (Pro) on Google Play Changing wallpapers has been fun for as long as we've been able to do that, and Tapet has been there with us for some time. The wallpaper allows you to either choose the wallpaper yourself or set the app to automatically create a new one for you every hour or once a day. Moreover, the app automatically detects the resolution of your smartphone so that the wallpaper looks sharp and does not stain your home screen. Free w/IAP on Google Play Some of us don't have the time or desire to dive through thousands of icon packets, but just want something that looks great. Whicons is not flashy (on the surface) but is working by giving you a good looking icon package on your Android phone. There are more than 5,500 custom icons with matching wallpapers and Dynamic Calendar icon support, so your calendar displays the correct date. Free w/IAP with Google Play source: Ara Wagoner/Android Central In addition to customizing your phone to the contents of your heart, you can take advantage of widgets to quickly digest various data. Whether you just want to see what the weather forecast looks like, or you need to see what's on the agenda today, there's a widget for everything. Then, with the help of other apps, you can create your own widget with any information that you can think of. The best password managers Source: Joe Maring/Android Central Absolutely, positively, under no circumstances should your smartphone have a note with passwords listed. Hackers are better than ever today and your personal information can be disclosed more easily than you think. However, if you have a password has been compromised. The app can then help create a secure, secure and almost undescended password to It's not going to fall into the wrong hands. 1Password hasn't always been the best option in the Play Store, but recent updates have extended the ante and pushed it to the top of the charts. The service gives you a short trial before you need to sign up for a subscription. And the vaults remain secure and allow you to keep important personal information safe, but ready. Free w/IAP Google Play LastPass does a fantastic job of keeping all your passwords safe and secure even if you want to stay with a free account. Then there are premium options for either one user or you can protect your entire family with a specific plan. The service even offers security challenges to help keep your password up to date and safe and out of the hands of bad guys. Free w/IAP on Google Play when it comes to Dashlane, you get up to 50 passwords stored on one device with a free version, but Premium gives you even more. The premium subscription allows users to access a personal VPN, credit monitoring, and identity theft protection. This is all in addition to being a great place to keep your password safe and make it easy to update them. Free w/IAP on Google Play Stop using the same password every time you create a new login online. Enpass is a simple password manager that works regardless of whether you're connected to a network or not because the data is stored on your devices and not on the company's servers. But you can easily sync all your passwords to your devices with popular cloud services like Dropbox, Google Drive and more. Free w/IAP on Google Play Best Messaging Apps Source: Android Central Let's be real, messages are the primary way almost everyone communicates. With various apps and services, it's much easier to text your mom than to call her and sit on the phone for an hour or more. Not everything requires a phone conversation, and these messaging apps open the doors to easier communication with friends, family, coworkers, and more. Dark theme! Messages online! It's been a big year for Google's SMS app that can compete with Messages online is Pulse's paid SMS sync service, which is compatible with multiple platforms and browsers. The themes of the messages may be lacking, but the dark theme is a welcome addition. Free Google Play on Android Central has been slacked for years because Slack is one of the best chat apps on the market today, either for business or personal purposes. Threads allow us to get to the little thing without spam the main conversation, and everyone can custom slackmojin to add glamour. All it takes now is a dark theme to keep my bosses from being blinded when I ping them at 2am. Free Google Play sms with SMS started out as a fun project for the Microsoft Garage team, but has turned into one of the smartest downloadable apps. While you can still send TEXT messages and MMS messages, SMS Organizer creates automatic reminders of your conversations and even makes it easy to pay your friend back for dinner, directly from the app. You can even easily block spam emails, customize notifications and set certain ringtones for your contacts. Free google play on Telegram was already one of the fastest and most popular third-party messaging customers available, but Telegram X turns things around a little bit. With the X version of the app, the interaction with the app is even faster, with even more features, as well as an improved interface and numerous gestures. The free Google Play Discord is designed so that players are at heart, but more and more people are moving to the messaging platform thanks to their integrations and ease of use. You can quickly build a user community with easy community management while assigning member roles and calling links ready. Free on Google Play If end-to-end encryption is the best choice. This service guarantees that every message you send is secure, and you can even configure the app to act as the default TEXT messaging client for your Android device. You can even make audio and video calls that are sure to remain private no matter what. Free on Google Play Best Weather Apps Source: Harish Jonnalagadda/Android Central No one wants to get caught in a rainstorm at the wrong time, and it's important to know if you need your jacket or if it's time for shorts and sandals. There are so many weather apps in the Play Store that it's pretty hard to find a diamond in a rough one. Fortunately, there are a few apps that stand out from the package and offer something unique. AccuWeather is an easy suggestion for a great weather app thanks to its MinuteCast feature. This will give you up-to-date weather alerts so you know if there's a surprise storm you don't have to catch. In addition, the app includes live radar from the area, which shows where the nearest storm system is so you can prepare. Google Play Weather's free w/IAP can be annoying, so it's important that you have an app that makes the weather forecast manageable. Today, Weather excels in this regard with a beautifully designed app and access to the different information you might want. Moreover, it is editable, so you can either view or hide what you want to know and what you don't. Free w/IAP on Google Play Instead of trusting the app to tell you when bad weather might be coming, why not see it for yourself? RadarScope gives you a radar view of what's going on around you and up-to-date updates with a possible storm weather service. Free w/IAP google play on Yahoo Weather has come a long way over the years and is now sporting a great design that will show you everything you need.
