They activate his powers by psychological means instead of direct genetic manipulation as they did beast boy. When Fistpoint attacked Beast Boy, he came to his defense, but said it was because at one point he was too friendly with her. Then he went on to say that he would eat Beast Boy alive if he had his way. Despite these words, he came to his defense before the N.O.W.H.E.R.E. security force could get him into the gladiatorial pit. She was thrown into the arena in her stead, where she met Fistpoint again even though she had cronies. Beast Boy came to his rescue and allegedly bonded from there. The Kids From N.O.W.H.E.R.E. They escape together, without Lightning, and head to Los Angeles, where they meet with Niles Caulder.Terra and Beast Boy follow the group (Fairchild, Thunder, Ridge, and Superboy, who wants to talk to Fairchild) through the base, and Terra and Beast Boy threaten to leave after seeing the Niles' training arena, which is similar to culling arena. Fairchild and Superboy begin to argue, giving the Thunder a headache. Thunder suddenly collapses into pain, and his powers get out of control, with hundreds of high-power sound waves crashing through the building. Having no other choice, Superboy flew through the sound waves and knocked down thunder. Thunder is brought to the operating room by Niles and his medical team. Terra and Beast Boy watch as the doctors begin the operation, and Niles tells them that Thunder has a chip in his brain that could kill them, and Harvest could easily have put them in all the other children as well. I'm Not from This Age: Future Origin Earth IIThe future origin of Earth begins 10 years into the future. In this timeline, the villain known as Lord Chaos reigns over the world with tyranny. The battalion is second in command of a team called Team Titans. These Titans were created to defeat Lord Chaos and restore the peace and freedom of the world. This timeline turned out to be false. As an attempt to stop the resistance and Team Titans from being a problem for him, Lord Chaos decided that he would need a spy in their ranks to learn about the opposition's moves and plans. It was because of this plan that Lord Chaos sent some of his men to one of the rebel hospitals and brought a girl who had some similarity apparently to Earth. Lord Chaos's scientists were able to extract DNA from the bones of the long-dead Earth and inject it into the kidnapped girl. Because of this experiment, she gains the same powers as the first Earth, also adding false memories to her brain by making her believe she is Geo-Force's daughter and doing surgery to make her look identical to the original Earth. Just as Lord Chaos had thought, and due to the lack of recordings from Earth's betrayal, he was able to join the resistance and Team Titans as a double agent under brain control, working for Lord Chaos in the same way his predecessor had done with Deathstroke in the past. However, the only difference was that before Earth could give Lord Chaos information about their location, she was discovered by the leader of Team Titans. After the discovery of Earth's betrayal, the Team Titans used a cerebral mental probe to learn everything they could about her. After learning everything Lord Chaos had done on Earth as an attempt to use it as a weapon against resistance and the Team Titans, they also discovered that the new Earth's body was rejecting the original's DNA and that it would kill her in a matter of weeks. Prestor Jon was able to get Earth's body to accept his predecessor's DNA and save them life in progress. After learning that everything he believed in was false and how much Chaos had done them, decided to join Team Titans to help them fight Lord Chaos. Earth II or earth?
