Lazy john lyrics

Work all week in the mid noon day sun 15 cents coming Saturday Go dancing to some fun Why don't you get away from lazy John? I have someone who lives on the side of the road. The eyes are crooked and his feet bow, But he's having a lot of fun. why dont you run , lazy john . Lazy John, Lazy John Why don't you finish your day job? I'm in the shade, you in the sun, why dont you run , lazy john . I woke up during the day break, Down to the farms try to earn my rights, Then you came a long time later. why dont you run , lazy john . Lazy John, Lazy John Why don't you finish your day job? I'm in the shade, you in the sun, why dont you run , lazy john . We're gonna dance on Saturday night. We're gonna dance until morning light. So I'm gonna bring my darling home. why dont you run , lazy john . Lazy John, Lazy John Why don't you finish your day job? I'm in the shade, you in the sun, why dont you run , lazy john . Lazy John, Lazy John Why don't you finish your day job? I'm in the shade, you in the sun, why dont you run , lazy john . Work all week in the mid noon day sun 15 cents coming Saturday Go dancing to some fun Why don't you get away from lazy John? Lazy John Lazy John Why don't you finish your day job? You're in the shade and I'm in the sun. Why don't you get away from lazy John? My daughter lives at the end of the road His eyes cross and his feet bow. But we're definitely having a lot of fun. Why don't you get away from lazy John? Go to Saturday Night Dance Doesn't come home until bald daylight Then I'll take my daughter home. Why don't you get away from lazy John?
