Many thanks to everyone who made the ASE2020 a successful conference!!! We run ASE2020 in virtual conference mode from September 21-25 using three time zones. We had the participation of almost 400 people from all over the world. We will (try) to run ASE2021 in Melbourne, Australia 15-19 2021. We'll add link to the ASE2021 site from here as soon as it's available. We hope to see you - physically or virtually - at ASE 2021!! Page 2 ASE 2020 (series) / Anyone with an active role within the ASE 2020 website (e.g. authors, committee members) can start a blog. Want to write a blog but still do not have an active role on the site? Please ask one of the organizers or use the contact form to request posting privileges. Note that you need to be logged in in order to post a blog. John Ormiston received the 2017 Ethica Award for the 2017 Ethica Award, the highest honor of the... ASE 2020 Virtual Experience This exciting new educational offer features 44 hours of CME and access to content until November 10, 2020! The format may be different, but the educational and scientific content is as exciting as if we were all together in person. The three-day live broadcast included many of the popular sessions of past conferences, such as the ASE Presidential Address, State of the ASE, the 31st Edler Lecture, Arthur E. Weyman Young Investigator's Award Competition, 21st Annual Feigenbaum Lecture, Brian Haluska Sonographer Research Competition Award, Educator Summit, and the Value of Echo Summit. New sessions for the ASE Virtual Experience 2020 include Artificial Intelligence and What It Means for You, three Sessions of Care Episodes covering coronary heart disease, mitral valve disease, and mechanical circulatory support cardiomyopathy transplantation, and Echo and COVID-19. There are sessions of the eleven original tracks offered during the live broadcast. These ranges include: Circulation, Career Start, Essential Imaging (including Sonography), Innovation/Technology, Ischemia, Myocardium/Function, Pediatric/Congenital, Perioperative, Point of Care, Special Sessions and Valves. Download the One Look Schedule We know that personal interaction with faculty is one of the most important parts of our face-to-face Scientific Sessions. The all-session platform will be available until November 10, 2020. Any live Q&A that occurred has been recorded and is included in the on-demand presentation. Want to know more?
