In addition to storing enough food and water, you need to improve the happiness of your residents by giving them the right job they want, or organizing weddings for couples. Pregnant mothers have a 100% happiness rate. As the population grows, don't forget to upgrade your facility. Building labFallout Shelter has two types of labs for you to choose from are Stimpacks and Radaway. Laboratories are responsible for producing medicines and useful items in residents' lives. When your base is attacked by giant cockroaches, Stimpacks helps you heal and Radaway helps you detoxify your residents. In a chaotic world, despite the danger, the outside world has a lot of important items and materials to update its base. Let someone out, equip them with enough armor, weapons, Stimpacks and Radaway and then it will bring you a lot of precious materials. What is Rush?
