Beast's job is to catch every contestant and make sure the players can't bank the money the team needs to play collectively in 'The Final Chase'. To get started, each player comes one at a time and plays a game called 'Cash Builder'. In this game, you are given a minute to answer as many questions as possible with each correct answer worth every $5,000. The more accurate answers are given, the more money players can add to the bank. After the minute is up, the player's money is placed three steps down on an eight-step money board. The player can stay in this step and play for the money they earn, but if they wish, one step down from the board for a smaller prize or one step higher than the board for a larger prize, or the value of each prize is determined by The Beast. Low reward can sometimes be a negative amount of money. Page 2 © Disney, all rights reserved shows in this test of shows for young children, including shorts. They're on the Disney Channel. Enjoy!
