Horses are an important aspect of Red Dead Online and you will no doubt be in your fair share of horse-rearing shootouts while playing Rockstar's Western Online. Fortunately, there is a way to duck while you are on your horse, protect you from guns and make you a very difficult target to hit. You can't do it right off the bat, but this guide will tell you all you need to know about dodging on horseback. How to duck on your horse in Red Dead Online Duck on your horse, press the jump button (square on PS4, X on Xbox, Space Bar on PC or X in Stadia) while aiming. This is a maneuver, as well as diving in combat while on foot. In addition, like diving, you need to hold the direction, using an analog stick left or right for dodging to work. Just to make us clear, you have to choose direction with the left analog stick and press the jump button while aiming in the dive. Before you can use this capability, however, you will need to do quite a bit of bounty hunter roles, so you have to rage up a pretty lot of goals to get it. Our bounty hunter guide should be enough to give you a start in the bounty hunting business if you haven't spent any time with the role yet the bounty hunting licence will set you back 15 Gold Bars if you haven't gotten your hands on one yet. Like many things in Red Dead Online, dodging on horseback can be a bit a car for some people. Some have reported that it works only with other players and not NPCs, while others have not achieved any moves to call at all. Hope you don't run into any problems, but if you've met the requirements but can't duck for some reason, try searching for a new online session. Dodging on horseback is an incredibly useful ability to have if you happen to get raised with grief in the open world, so it's worth the work to be elevated up as a bounty hunter. - This article was updated at:27 a.m. December 2019 Free Twitch Prime DealsGet Prime game now and get items in prize games Related Topics: Next Horse FAQ - Can I Change It?
