Spooky Halloween Update!- New items are waiting for you! Good thing: 1. amazing graphic 2. amazing games 3. amazing weapons 4. multiplayer trading bad things: at 1 o'clock my game just crashes and if you're not your friend, it's hard to find the same world 2, all buttons, if the cannon needs 10 fears, numbers or Don't show things and you have 2 you can't make it and you don't have a good booty how much you have 3 arenas 4 my game restarts and I have a moon blade 2 and i'm not sure if I deleted the game suggestion I lost it: 1 fix2 more things keep up the good work 3 awesome game OK random guy I got it I stayed a little because I joined the Asian server and the boom didn't know what happened when I joined the hacker game and I didn't know what happened when I got hundreds of survival coins I didn't know he was hacking until he left The next day I got confused because the guy said I was hacking and said OK and the next day I try to ride online and at first I do not know what to do, so I delete my game in an accident and am sad at first, so I make a new account and I know what to do I will join another server that is a hacker. I didn't know he was a hacker, so he started breaking rocks and trees and continued to get emperor dresses and snowman hats, I thought it was glitch, but I noticed that it wasn't leaving the game and once you read this, I absolutely love this game and the gameplay is simple and clean, please return my account now You can play offline if you want to play while you are away, or you can play online if you want to help playing with other people. I love the community the way it's so great and you just started and they usually help you when I'm playing the same time two years ago. Well, I had to quit because I was only banned from offline servers and had to re-purchase storage. So basically all my hard work, two years of it (I had something like hell armor, Moonblade 4 and many more), was wasted. I don't know if it was banned or a server bug, but it didn't tell me if it was banned, so I'm still confused on this day as to why I kicked me out. As I said, the absolute awesome game is recommended to players who want to talk, interact and play with others while I have the absolute thrill of time, but I was removed that right that devastated me. I hope for others who have read this to download and enjoy the game :) But if you please help Cow beans read this and I get my stuff back. Thanks!)
