In loving memory of Dr. Warren Wiersbe Dr. Warren W. Wiersbe (1929-2019) was an internationally recognized teacher, author, and bible conference speaker. He graduated in 1953 from the Northern Baptist Theological Seminary in Lombard, Illinois. While attending seminary, he was ordained pastor of the Central Baptist Church in 1951 and served until 1957. From September 1957 to 1961, Wiersbe served as Director of the Literary Division for Youth for Christ International. From 1961 to 1971 he was pastor of Calvary Covington Baptist Church, southern Kentucky Cincinnati, Ohio. His sermon was broadcast as Calvary Hour on a local Cincinnati radio station. From 1971 to 1978, He served as pastor of Moody Church in Chicago from 1971 to 1978. During his time at Moody Church he continued in radio service. Between August 1979 and March 1982, he wrote a weekly for Christianity Today as Eutychus X, taught practical theology classes at Trinity Evangelical Divinity School in Deerfield, Illinois, and wrote course materials and taught Ministry Doctorate courses at Trinity and Dallas Seminaries. In 1980 he switched to returning to the Bible radio broadcasting network where he worked until 1990. Dr. Wiersbe is a Writer in Residence at Cornerstone University in Grand Rapids and Distinguished Professor of Preaching at Grand Rapids Theological Seminary. In his lifetime, Dr. Wiersbe wrote more than 170 books—including the popular Be series, which has sold more than four million copies. Dr. Wiersbe was awarded the Gold Medallion Lifetime Achievement by the Evangelical Christian Publishers Association (ECPA). His writing will have an impact on generations to come. Warren W. [2] Wiersbe is perhaps best known for his series of 50 books in the BE: Be Real, Be Rich, Be Obedient, Be Mature, Be Joyful, etc., and other theological works. He was pastor of Moody Church in Chicago (1971–1978) and succeeded Theodore Epp as director of Back to the Bible radio service. [1] Wiersbe's early years and education were born on May 16, 1929, in East Chicago, Indiana, the youngest of Fred and Gladys Wiersbe's four children, and attended Washington High School in East Chicago, where he became a committed Christian at the Youth for Christ rally there in 1945. [1] After graduation, studied at Indiana University in Indianapolis, Roosevelt University, and graduated in 1953 from Northern Baptist Baptist Seminary in Lombard, Illinois. [2] While attending seminary, he was ordained pastor of the Central Baptist Church in 1951 and served until 1957. From September 1957 to 1961, Wiersbe served as Director of the Literary Division for Youth for Christ International. From 1961 to 1971 he was pastor of Calvary Covington Baptist Church, southern Kentucky Cincinnati, Ohio. The church grew out of a church that housed a congregation of eight hundred people to build a new church seat of two thousand people. The church attracts members from Ohio, Indiana and the Kentucky Tri-state Area. His Sunday sermon was broadcast as JamCalvary on a local Cincinnati radio station. From 1971 to 1978, Wiersbe pastored Chicago's Moody Church, named for the 19th-century evangelist Dwight L. Moody. While at Moody Church, he continued his radio service as a speaker on the nationally syndicated radio program Songs in the Night which moved to Moody Church in 1968. Between August 1979 and March 1982, he wrote a weekly for Christianity Today as Eutychus X. During the same time frame between 1978 and 1982, Wiersbe taught practical theology classes at Trinity Evangelical Divinity School in Deerfield, Illinois and wrote course materials and taught Imagination and Search for Bible Sermons, a Ministry course doctor at Trinity and Dallas Seminaries. While a pastor in Chicago, Wiersbe served on the board of the Slavic Gospel Association (SGA) from 1971 to 1983, ten years into his tenure as chairman of the board. From 1980 to 1992, he worked for radio broadcaster Back to the Bible and replaced Theodore Epp as general director the last six years of his time there. [1] In 1995, Wiersbe became a Writer at Residence at Cornerstone University in Grand Rapids, Michigan, and Distinguished Professor of Sermons at Grand Rapids Theological Seminary. An editor who contributed to Baker Book House, he wrote books that began in the 1950s under several publishing house labels; completed more than 150 books including the popular BE commentary series on every Bible book that has sold over four million copies. [3] Most of this information is available through Warren Wiersbe's autobiography Be Myself: Memoirs of a Bridgebuilder. [4] Wiersbe's personal life and death married Betty Warren on June 20, 1953, and they had four children. He died on May 2, 2019, aged 89. [5] Prior to his departure, Wiersbe and his wife Betty gave their large private library of more than 13,000 volumes to Cedarville University in Ohio. Taken from His Name means God is my judge, and his life bears witness to that fact. Daniel is a man best known. A close friend of God, he realized simultaneously that friendship spends time kneeling in humility. He understood God's sovereignty, even in Babylon where the Jews were exiled, and he refused to jeopardize his faith. Daniel's resolution means sacrifice. This means discipline in prayer, diplomacy with government leaders, and dedication to living apart. That means it's up to the unchanging God to give him an unwavering vision. In the midst of pagans, arrogant kings, voracious lions, and blazing furnaces, Daniel and his friends sought out God and found Him in a way that would inspire and strengthen your journey. The same Lord who shuts the lion's mouth and saves His people unscathed from fire will sanctify you to dream of His dreams and do His work if only you allow Him. Do you have what it takes? Take?
