Google Android Go is all about making high-quality smartphones available to users no matter where they live or how much money they have to spend. A large part of this comes from affordable devices that run by Android Go, but besides, Google also offers a wide range of Go apps. Go apps are designed to offer basic features to their regular counterparts while they fit better for low-end devices, and those we've seen so far are pretty impressive. Most of these come installed on Android Go Phone by default, but you can download them to any phone no matter what you have. Without further ado, here are all the go apps that are now available! Google Go If You Want Better than Google in a slim and lightweight package, this is where Google comes going in play. Google Go allows you to do almost everything you're on a regular Google app, including searching the web for what you want, finding and quickly sharing GIFs, voice search, and more. The Google Go home screen has quick links to its most important features, as well as web apps for things like Twitter, Instagram, etc. The best part? Google says that Google Go can help save up to 40% of your data usage compared to a regular Google application. With YouTube Go, you can access all your favorite videos and YouTube features without having to worry about slowing down on your phone or burning a lot of data. YouTube Go allows you to browse and watch all the videos you'll find on the regular YouTube app while also giving you tools to download videos for offline viewing, share them with friends without using any data, and see the exact number of MBs. There is no subscription page or option to like videos, but for an application that weighs in at just 9.4MB, there is a lot to admire. Download: YouTube Go (free) Go Gmail What's so cool about Gmail Go is that it can't be determined from a normal Gmail app. The interface has mostly not changed, and emails are grouped into smart categories like Social and Promotions, and quick responses are, and there is support for both Gmail and non-Gmail email accounts. The app is only 9.9MB in size and even comes with 15GB of free storage so you don't have to worry about running out of space. Download: Gmail Go (free) Go Maps whether you get conversion directions by playing, find the number to a local restaurant, or find a new place for coffee to check it out, Google Maps does everything. Fortunately, all the best features of Google Maps are in Maps Go. There are more than 70 different languages to choose from, information for more than 100 million places, and the app is just 167KB. Download: Maps Go (Free) Google Assistant Go Assistant is one of the Services of Google I rely on the most, whether you To find out about tomorrow's weather or find out how to mitigate is working, The Go Assistant offers basic features that make the assistant so great in the 5.0MB slim app down. You can open the go assistant by clicking on the app icon or pressing the home button for a long time if you have an Android Go phone, and once you do, you can ask the assistant to make phone calls, send text messages, get turn-by-turn navigation, and more. As great as all that is, the assistant can't currently go little set, control smart home wares, or use assistant actions. Download: Assistant Go (free) go files as you use your phone over time, it can be easy to forget old apps, photos, and other local digital items that eat away in your internal storage. Google CalendarGoogle is the official calendar for Android devices that have been tested by many users around the world. If you are now trying to get away from it, consider changing your mind. Since this app is installed on most Android devices by default, many users believe that there is nothing special in this program. They're wrong. Google has been updating its calendar for a few years, and now comes in material design with advanced event features, direct integration into other Google services (for example, supports Google Reminders now), and comes with exchange support. The program is super easy and will not cost a dime for you. It's a good thing, right? Download Google Calendar here.3. CalendarCalendar is a relatively new application. It works as a web application for iOS and Android devices. It is a smart app that learns your contacts, schedule and tasks. It also helps you schedule and arrange meetings according to available time intervals. The good thing about your calendar is that it allows you to sync with other calendars you use, such as Apple Calendar and Google Calendar. So you can manage all the calendars you have in one place. The calendar also provides you with analytics for your meetings, giving you a clear picture of how to better manage your time. Download calendar: Meeting and scheduling here.4. CalendarBusiness is geared toward selected people who use their calendar for business purposes and business planning. It provides different modes with extensive configuration capabilities. The app gives default viewing mode in months, and events can be marked in different colors. View/sort modes can be adjusted to your needs (by month, day, year, or events). You can also set multi-day view mode to see what things look like in the next few days. Scrolling up and down moves you by month, and if you check a few days, it will be displayed in a more detailed form. Today's view mode provides hourly scheduling, and table setting provides a detailed schedule for a single event. Business Calendar is a great tool for planning/scheduling cases, tasks, and events. There is support for recurring events, which can be set up in a few clicks. After you purchase a program, you can use it to import and export other calendars, delete, copy, or move multiple events at the same time. Android The calendar application may seem a little messy, but it works well and is easy to work with if you play with it for a while. A full version of the app is available for US$4.99, but you can also find a free version of the app test drive. As you can guess from the name, the main focus of this app is social networks. Unlike other social media platforms, you can consider this platform to work along the lines of Meetup.com. It's a site where you can connect with other people within your area who share a similar interest. IRL is that while also providing a suitable calendar for you to schedule events and plan your day. Although it's due to being a secondary focus, you lack a lot of sync aspects that other apps contain in this list. Regardless, because of this huge social feature, it is worth considering those who want to make more contacts. Download IRL Social Network Event here.9. CalendarToday is one of the most hip and edgy calendars on our list. The solution was one of the first solutions adopted by the design of the materials and remains one of the few who adhere to the elegant style. The Calendar app offers bold colors, simple controls and great functionality. This is not a heavy application like many others; It won't eat all your device memory. If you're not looking for something complicated and overfunctional, calendar day is what you need. You can always test the app before paying for it - the software is available for free. Download today's calendar here.10. TimepageTimepage is an intuitive calendar application that manages your time in a way that other calendar apps can't. It offers the same type of functionality that you expect from other calendar apps: event recording opportunities, notifications, reminders, weather, and driving time to a particular event. However, the application goes beyond those functions in two ways. The first way is that while the app sends you notifications, it also has a reminder to you of what's coming. This little extra time can allow you to set up and make adjustments to your day if necessary. The second function — and more importantly — is the heat map when you go to see your entire calendar view. This heat map refers to days when you are busier and other days are freer. This thermal map provides a quick overview of which days are good for adding more events and other tasks in general. Download Timepage here.
