What seemed like just another monster of the week children's shows turned into a complex story about a child fighting a tough alien regime and fixing his broken family. Steven Universe did more than just create a fandom. It gave representation to countless fans and dealt with difficult, complicated themes and issues. It offered deep, relatable characters that made viewers feel like they weren't alone, and lessons that people of all ages need to learn. Earlier this year, the show reached its conclusion, and fans have gone out of their way to show their appreciation for the cast and staff, better known as the Crewniverse. Here are just 10 of the many tributes fans have made to the Crewniverse. 10 FafaMeow In this tearful group photo, FafaMeow has Steven take one last selfie with his family and friends. Since this originally was titled A Last Selfie – Steven Universe Future Finale, it makes sense that there would be a lot of smiles and tears. Every character here feels like they're welling up with emotion, and it's clear which ones are better at keeping it in. Of course, no one would blame them if this was their last selfie with Steven. Peridot wearing the shirt that Steven gave her is cherry on top. 9 Cat-With-A-Crown Here we have Cat-with-a-Crown, which has Steven and the gems sitting on the beach watching the sunset - a fitting metaphor for the show as a whole that comes to a close as the end of a day. As tragic as it sees it go, it's inevitable, but also beautiful to see. Just as the show brought fans on Crystal Gems adventures, this image feels like we're sitting right behind the characters enjoying the peaceful, pink view with them. The stars appear in the sky alongside the artist's message, Thank You Steven Universe. 8 GlamourCoffee Another picture has Steven with his eyes set on the horizon in this piece of GlamourCoffee, only this time he sits by himself. We may not know what Steven sees, but it's okay. Much like with the show's finale, Steven's future is ambiguous and could go any number of routes now that he leaves Beach City by himself. In real life, there is no guarantee of what lies ahead for us, and while it is scary, it is also inspiring. While we may not know lies ahead for Steven, at least his future will be determined by his choices. 7 BeetleJulia Takes a trip down memory lane, BeetleJulia has Steven, Grenade, Pearl, and Amethyst meeting their past even from before they officially joined Crystal beads. Steven interacts with her younger self, Garnet hugs her first fusion form, Amethyst holds up even from when she first came out of kindergarten, and Pearl buckles her cheeks by herself when she used to earn Pink Diamond. The artist acknowledges that the show is not perfect, but admits that it made them feel better in tough times - a feeling that many fans can relate to. 6 Kell0x Thank God Spinel has elastic arms, otherwise she wouldn't get all in this picture done by Kell0x. The artist did a good job framing the image as if it were taken on a camera phone. Everyone gets a place in the picture as they cram together. They even managed to get diamonds in the back and fit Steven's dear old dad's head in. The artist reveals in the description of this piece how much they loved the show and how it helped them deal with their problems. It's a sweet gesture made by a fan honoring their favorite show. 5 mabill2001 During a trip down memory lane, mabill2001 gives thanks to crewniverse with this image of the three variations of Crystal Gems. On the left you have gems in their original design from the first season, and on the right are all their designs from after they are reformed. In the middle are their current designs standing in the foreground. It is interesting to see how gemstones have changed aesthetically over the years, as well as developed as characters. This just shows Crewniverse's ability to flesh out their characters over time. 4 sarah4AMEN Sarah4AMEN gives a shout-out to the voice actors by pulling them along with their characters in their first and present form. Going clockwise, Michaela Dietz is with Amethyst, Estelle is with Grenade, Deedee Magna is with Pearl, and Zach Callison with Steven. The illustration captures how personal these characters are to voices and what they mean to each other. If you visit the artist's account, there are additional images of Peridot, Connie, Lapis, Bismuth, Jasper and Spinel with their voice actors. 3 NandaBAlves Steven and gems give their creator some love in this image of NandaBAlves. Rebecca Sugar is the creator of Steven Universe and the first woman to independently create a series for Cartoon Network. She and Crewniverse have worked hard to bring their story to life and make a statement, just fighting to keep Ruby and Sapphire's marriage from being cut. With the show ending, her characters are showing their appreciation for everything she's done, drawing her in the same style as in her show. 2 Acynosure This teary image from Acynosure has Steven waving goodbye as he sheds some tears. Each drop contains a precious memory of what he leaves behind. It's heartbreaking for us and Steven to go through this, but it's not all bad. Connie and Lion are waiting in front of him, so Steven won't be all alone, and he's towards a bright future, figuratively and literally. The artist did a magnificent job with this farewell, and it looks as if Steven is waving goodbye to all the show's fans watching it. Now we just need to find a new show to fill the void. 1 PinkuNoHato PinkuNoHato ends this list with a heartfelt hug from Crystal Gems with Steven. Even though Steven leaves and they can't help but cry, they all still manage to smile. The linework in this piece is amazing and the shade on their clothes is amazing, perfectly nailing the show's art style. Just as Rose wanted, Steven leaves Beach City to no longer worry about being a Diamond or a universe, but just to be a human being. All that's left to say is thank you Steven Universe. Or as Peridot would put it, Wow, thank you.
