One of the most successful and popular games, Plants vs Plants. Zombie brings new incentives to an addictive tower defense game and fun levels. . Have you heard only the sound of the house? Zombies go to the garden and do not appear in the environment! Take your seeds and shovel, and the sun shines in the garden! Show interference, Murray, what the green really means! Offering a different challenge vs Zombies, dozens of plants in each level. If you decide to stop waves of zombies with strategic gardening skills, your goal is to protect zombies from different plants in your home garden. You can make 12 different floors, in total each publication with a unique function. Space on each floor costs a certain amount of sunlight. When you start a garden, it's just the first line of defense. However, your garden will expand after each level until it reaches a maximum grid size of 9x5. In addition, you will get a new seed plant, successfully completing each level. Zombies take the time to learn, but learn how to adapt to upgrade their garden! With each new level, there will be new types of zombies among the intruders. Another is difficult and can only be defeated with some plants against them. Some levels take place during the day. You have grown from a sunflower that falls above the sun level to collect and maintain for free. However, at night, you need to grow plants for use at night, you do not need sunlight. The two combinations are a big favorite among the various features, online players Plants vs Zombies and tricks. The first clue is to make a long-range attack and indicate the natural growth., and create plants with weak zombies, while the plants barely grow. To make a tip, within walking distance of the plants to close their positions before they can reach, they are weak. Kind of zombies to see another item will appear. In general, strong people appear in a certain area; You can decide where they appear and focus your attention on the conservation authority. Features Means to avoid adventure mode puzzle mode to win like Plants vs Zombies - Online strategies are based on the style and plant games available. The first is simple: if in a short time on the stage there is more sun to grow plants much more strongly. Another member of content usage patterns.
