spend money and how in the shortest time to eliminate fire, in these questions you should answer for yourself. To make the lives of its residents more comfortable, you also need to supply water to each home. You can also create various gaming facilities, such as casinos, that would allow citizens to find time to rest. In the game, you will need to assign special residential areas for apartment construction, where people arriving in the city will move into your apartments. However, in addition to allocating space for construction work, it is necessary to provide the most important resources to people who come to the city on a regular basis. Ultimately, the user will have to create resources in special factories to regulate the production of goods. And when old and fairly worn van users will want to change their homes, players will have to get in the flow of creating additional resources and items. Schools, universities, parking areas, power plants – all of this will be built and improved for simoleons, which are gambling money. Well, after that, Simcity's gameplay will start moving through the standard gameplay, when a lot of resources are required, but you can't provide them with your production right now. Here you will have to spend more time in your city, trying to increase production. In addition, players will always face several surprises: fires, traffic jams, rising taxes and many other problems. You'll have to find a balance to make your citizens happy. Your city will become a great metropolis in slow steps, and to get the planned one, it will take a lot of work, and restless users measured pace of the game can get bored quickly. Freedom of action will be limited. However, those users who have never played in the personal computer version will remain satisfied with this game, and only connoisseurs of the original Society. PUT YOUR IMAGINATION ON THE MAP Expand along the beach with marina, water park, and luxury beachfront. Build a Tokyo-style neighborhood and unlock unique monuments like the Eiffel Tower and the Statue of Liberty. Discover innovative technologies with future cities and get athletic with sports stadiums. He came to town with Las Vegas buildings and went to Hollywood with movie studios. There's always something new and different to make your city unique. Fight for victory compete in real-time pvp with the Wars club, where strategies are created with club members and declare the mayor's war in other cities. After the battle is over, unleash crazy disasters on opponents like the Monster Disco Twister and vegetables, to hurt and watch the remains happen live. Earn disaster cards, SimCash, and other valuables for use in battle or to upgrade your city. In addition, the other players in the Mayors Contest. Complete weekly challenges and rank up in advance through the Leagues. Become a top mayor and get rewards that can enhance and beautify your city. CONNECT and team Join a mayor's club for commercial supplies with other members and discuss available strategies and resources. They collaborate to help someone complete their personal vision and get support for their complete.
