In our new limited home space it was a great option. Can fit printer, his laptop files, and much more all in one corner of the library!5very handyJackie BBI purchased this item a few months ago, it is still powerful and very convenient to use and super !!! Satisfactory.5 Save on 5SpaceBev54 Buy it to save space and I'm very happy with it but I'm glad I purchased the top too.4Fantastic! Maco StyleIt is perfect for what we needed, I'm a beautiful way to have a table in the nice and tidy main living area5Neat & TidyKgb6I bought it about a month ago and it hides all my beautiful office items5 A small office largegill19 recently bought it for a unit with not much space. It's perfect for the printer, with a hole in the back shelf for power cables, and my laptop I can just connect to an extension cord as well! This unit is not too big and not too small either, holding everything for my little office! The front opens for use even as a desk! It goes with my day bed Hemnes and TV units in the same beautiful room. The coffin below contains a lot as well. Very happy with my purchase.5neat and tidyChrissySchi bought it recently and I am so happy with my purchase. This desk keeps my little home office tidy and tidy. There are no visible cables, laptop, paper and pens locked in an instant.5Modern take on the classic EWoodsBought it for research corner - looks great and keeps the table hidden and today looking. It has a handy hole for a cable from the table and into the cupboard down but lacks a handy hole to run the cables in number to a power point - surprising as usually Ikea are amazing with practicality - so it's Like we're going to have to drill ours. Alan8Doors should be closed at the same time, otherwise it will not be completely closed. I tried to adjust the hinges but still in vain design.3 Large and smart use of spaceDon64Th this unit is excellent for use both for storage and as a desktop. Master's top unit really adds extra benefit to the creation.5Drop down the bureau is damaged, it easily brokeCatboy! I bought it for my 7 year old daughter. The first time she used a table doing her homework it fell apart and the top felt heavily on her feet. The drop-down bureau hinges are not strong enough and the screws are not secured tightly.1Perfect for our needsMarzyBarzy1980Got it, with the top attachment, and just love it! We will do,hotel from morning, each 100 rooms 3-mer/100 offices in 2018, this may be something for design advertising.4Good but two negativesEkky22 I have my Maines bureau with extra on a unit in white for more than 2 years. This is great for storage even though I had to remove the bottom tray of my printer to fit it inside the cupboard (my second printer/scanner was two wide to fit at all). But by far my biggest complaints are that the left doors must open first - great if you're left-handed but if you're like me and want to quickly get something with your right hand it's annoying. The second complaints are that a little too much pressure on the leaf opened by my 6-year-old son caused the warp and the screws were about to explode. I can't buy replacements. It happened twice (my husband straightened my hinges one last time). They need a much stronger hinge.3Exlant Tuck away, big on storageLizyBel has one of these for two years now, my son loves it so much that he stole it from me now I'm getting a new one. It fits everything beautifully. The only slight fall is that after much leaning over the top of the drop-down table it can get some loose hinges to cause screws I think are a bit too small but otherwise I love it.5 For their 75th anniversary, Ikea brought back some of their old favourites in the GRATULERA series. But wait, these aren't the only discontinued IKEA products that we have the yellow and blue mothership return. When she posted the question to readers a while ago, I got a lot of responses. I'm sure you have one or two (or many) items that you hope Ikea will re-drive. Add to the comments section the wish list of our major IKEA items. Earth to Ikea, pleeease to launch these Ikea products have been discontinued back. Here are 25 discontinued items of our Ikea wish list. (It's a long one, in no particular order) KIVIK Single Seat | IKEA.com #1 . Quique's only seat... Or at least the slips! I don't know what to tell you. - Neva Jerker Table Management Hack. Click on a picture to see the hack. #2. I don't know if I can do I like to see them bring back the Jer background table. I've got two. The one I use as a desk and one I use as my electronics desktop). Not only are they big enough to support my computer setting up three monitors, but because uprights have holes every 1.5 inches are easy to hack. I don't think I'm alone in wanting to return this discontinued Ikea product. There was a petition on Facebook not long ago and I don't know any other table with its own fan site. - Steve I don't think I'm alone in this wish, there was a petition on Facebook not long ago and I don't know about any other table with its own fan site. - Steve I'd love to see the Jerker table back! It's modular and well made. This can be done to be a stand-up or seating table (adjustable but fixed height). They make a great desk. - Wayne Yoshida Source: Anidores #3. Hey, there was limited edition wallpaper, which I can't find anywhere- can't remember the name, but a colorful zig-zag effect, very modern. I haven't seen anything like this since. - Etaine I think you're referring to a limited edition IKEA BRAKIG wallpaper. I was lucky enough to give you three rolls before they ran out. ☺ Jules #4. What I really want to go back to - I will never understand why they dropped out this summer - is the Ångsö garden series, especially the large garden table which is, no; Was the only one at 1 by 2 meters. Really a shame :-~ - Stefan Benjamin Stool hacked into a laptop conductor for watching movies in bed. Click on a picture to see the hack. We want IKEA's favorites to stop #5. Benjamin's non-existence in IKEA stores is very painful these days...! When I wanted to complete my two shrimp with two more years two years ago - ha ha! My theory that it fates them (which probably applies to many other discontinued IKEA items, too) is that Ikea would rather withdraw the item from their catalogue than raise its price significantly: benjamin cost about 17 euros back in the day - which is almost ridiculous and little money for that kind of quality in the material and built that you have. - uwe s. / Germany Benjamin cost about 17 euros back in the day - which is almost to the points of chucked a little money for that kind of quality in the material and built that you have. - uwe #6. Shaker-style white doors (solid, not glass ones) for bestå system! ☺ - Sarah discontinued Ikea Flintorp wire bin | Picture Source: IKEA.com #7. I wish Venturp #10238148 back. I wish the Onderdell series had a high drawer box. The Onderdal is so solid. I love it, don't!!!! - Fran #8. One thing I miss - I missed so long that I even lost the bookmark for the product page, so I don't know his name. ☺ now, we have the RISOR room extraction - very nice and classy, but also almost expensive for almost €100. There used to be A much simpler one: only three metal frames (with crossbars) depend on each other, and a simple piece of cloth stretches over each of the rods. It costs something like €30 or €40, and with simple construction, it would be easy to choose your own fabric and use it for the room partition as well as buoys and other details. This - usually Ikea - simplicity, and adaptability are gone and there is nothing similar to replacing it. (I don't see RISOR as a replacement for Manu. And, for a while, I couldn't even find * all * dividing a room at the price point - everything was much more expensive - and I couldn't afford them even if I wanted them for design (which I don't!). And, yes, I want it back! I could use 2 or 3 of them, even (and would buy, and adapt to, them when the product came back). - Marjolein RONDO Dinner Set | IKEA.com #9. I want Rondo's dinner. Some of mine crack. It was a wonderful design. - J Palmer, Canada Karlstad 3 Sofa Seat | IKEA.com #10. If there's any chance we could request that every Ikea item stop coming back, I'd choose a three-seater IKEA Karlstad. I agree with you that this couch should definitely come back. Well, I've been using a 3-seat Carlstad for year 5 now in our rented house somewhere in eastern Malaysia. And now we've bought a house in western Malaysia and I always think it would be good if Karlstad was still in production. - Cheap #11. yes, Christmas trees, mini-wire! - NYTTJA Pam Frame | IKEA.com #12. I'd like to see this picture frame come back - NYTTJA 8.5 x 11. I have a photo gallery in black-and-white frames that I add to every year or two. I found out last year that they are no longer available. ☺ I really like their basic look. - Kathy discontinued Ikea products... We need them to finish their #13. I'd like to see the return of red-brown as a colorful option across the hemens range. I have a red-brown Hemnes console table which sits well with my other furniture which is an antique nut. I want another hack into Hi-Fi storage but it was discontinued in red-brown. - Kim Kitchen UDDEN. Click on a picture to see the hack. #14. Want to see Auden's kitchen collection back. - Lucas Kallinosis / Ikea Ikea VARDE Range | IKEA.com #15. I want to see the rose cabinets back... Just love them! - Gretchen #16. I'm not there any longer, but I loved a seat in the Seventies: just a metal frame and a textile seat and back, it came in orange, yellow and dark blue. - Michael köhler EMMABO? - Jules #17. I'd like to see Gintness' glass door come back so I can get started. Project on a low coffin. - Dilip Antony's laundry basket has been transformed into an amazing side table. Click on a picture to see the hack. #18. We love the Antony series - also the original wooden step stool (the new one is thinner and shorter but the original was more stable. - Some Avriel are just too good to say goodbye #19. more patterned covers for Ektorp sofas. once there was a much wider selection. - Marianne Lack unit shelves like food benches. Click on a picture to see the hack. #20. Ikea needs to return the LACK bookshelf. it was so versatile and made a large media unit on the wall. BESTÅ wall mounting panels that were made of glass should go back. it hid all your cables and made mounting wall TVs in a much #21 format!! easier. - Kyle Mangano Ikea needed to return the LACK bookshelf. It was so versatile and made a large media unit on the wall. - Kyle Ikea Mandel headboard hacked into room partition and shelves. click on picture to see #21. I was so bummed about it! I bought the bed and the headboard ran out of stock, and then... I kept waiting for it to come back and was so upset it never did! - Amy Larberg wall shelves and design. Click on a picture to see the hack. #22. yes, yes, yes, yes, yes, yes! I'd love to see Larberg's media storage shelves come back!! Perfect for CDs, DVDs and paperbacks! I loved them and had to buy dozens when they were still available. Originally costing $CDN 5 or so, they are now being spanked on eBay for $US 25 or more each - achi! - Rebecca #23. The product I'm dead to them to re-brand is the PS 2017 Partition Room, picture above. It was announced, came out very briefly, and then suddenly stopped. Looks like the stores don't know anything about it. I really wanted to buy some of these for our home studio, where we record music and my voice game work. It looks like a big amazement! ~ Amy Goskin Source: donebymyself.nl #24. For me, Ikea Ps Alan (rocking chair) and Lindmon (shutters) have to come back! ~ Christine #25. I'd love to see the lines of Markor and Lexivik again. They're both very different styles but I like them. Also, I'd like to see the return of the ancient stain (Leksvik was a complete line) almost anything (hehemmm Hennes maybe?). If I can't get the matching parts, at least the tom stain will work. I find the black/brown color they showed for a few years too dark (the old dark brown of the cursor was nicer). ~ Elizabeth I'm pretty sure it's not an exhaustive list. What about you? Do you have any discontinued IKEA products would you like to see (and buy) again? Tell us in the comments below and let's keep our fingers crossed that someone at Ikea will see our wish list and blow the magic wand. Wand.
